

Lakeville South Boys In-House Basketball

Player's Code of Conduct

You represent Lakeville South Boys Basketball and your behavior (positive or negative) is a lasting impression.

I hereby pledge to participate in youth sports and will do my best to follow this code of ethics.

- I will do my best and give 100% in all practices and games.
- I will listen to my coaches and respond in a positive nature and strive to improve.
- I will work for the good of my team and I will honor my commitment to my teammates and the program. I will support my teammates' efforts by using positive statements and gestures.
- I will come to practice and to games to improve my skills and strengthen the team.
- I will show that I am prepared and ready to play by arriving early for all practices and games. I will encourage my parents to keep me on time.
- Absences from practices, games or tournaments may result in a reduction in playing time at the next game. If you are going to be absent, call your coach.
- I will respond only to the officials, teammates and my coach during games. (Opponents, opponents' coaches, parents and fans are all off limits.) I will accept the decisions of the coaches and officials without argument.
- I will practice good sportsmanship by treating all players, coaches, parents and officials with respect.
- An inappropriate attitude may lead to a practice or game suspension. The correction process will be determined by my coach.
- I understand that my participation in this program is an opportunity to compete, to learn to improve, to be part of a team and to have fun.
