The Game Third Period

- Referee blows whistle, Guelph wins face-off
 - Timekeeper starts game clock
- Guelph has the ball, Owen Sound player checks Guelph player from behind
- Guelph player punches Owen Sound player, and a line-brawl begins
- During any major altercations, the timekeeper has important duties

The Game Third Period

- Using the OLA Worksheet
 - Note the time on the game clock, but do not stop the clock until instructed to do so by the officials
 - Note the jersey numbers of any players involved in the altercation and their level of involvement
 - Note whether players leave their bench or the penalty box
 - Note any other behaviour injurious to lacrosse (incidents involving coaches, ejected players, etc.)
 - If asked to call 911, do so

The Game Third Period

- When referee reports penalties, record them onto the Worksheet before neatly transferring onto the game sheet
- Record players in order of occurrence, and penalties in order of severity (2 . 10 . GM)
- For major infractions, read the penalties back to the referee before play resumes

Coincidental & Multiple Penalties

- Coincidental penalties are penalties of equal duration that occur during the same play and start at the same time
- 2 minute minors cannot be cancelled out
 - If there is not at least one 5 min. major on both teams, all penalties must be served

Multiple Penalties

- Must be a minimum 3 players (+ goalie) on floor
- No more than 2 penalties for each team can be running at once (if penalties are stacked, the 3rd cannot start)
- Multiple penalties are the most difficult to assess
 - Take time to properly work out the penalty situation with the referees
