preliminary round game for both teams at the 77th annual IIHF Men's World Championship. The U.S. has won seven of the eight meetings between the two teams all-time in world championship play. The last contest between the two clubs came a year ago here in Helsinki with the U.S.

earning a 7-2 victory in the opening game for both teams (see boxscore from game later in these notes). With a win in regulation today, the U.S. would take over first place in Group H.

• GOALTENDING/LINEUP -- Ben Bishop (Denver, Colo./Tampa Bay Lightning/University of Maine) will get the start in goal today for Team USA. He started the first three games for the U.S. and is 2-1-0 with a 3.04 GAA and .873 save percentage in the world championship. Team USA's lineup will be the same as it has used in the first four games, with the exception of defenseman Jacob Trouba (Ann Arbor, Mich./Winnipeg Jets/Univ. of Michigan), who is out due to injury (day-to-day).

• A DAY OFF -- Team USA players and staff had Thursday (May 9) off. Among activities enjoyed by players, staff and their families: strolling the city and enjoying its many cafes, stores and restaurants; checking out the fortress of Suomenlinna; trying luck at roulette and blackjack; visiting the Estonian capital of Tallinn; taking in Iron Man 3; experiencing the Finnish sauna, relaxing on a harbor boat tour; and catching up on sleep.

• STASTNY LEADING THE WAY -- Paul Stastny (St. Louis, Mo./Colorado Avalanche/University of Denver) is the only U.S. player with at least one point in each of the team's first four games. He begins today with seven points, including two goals. Of his five assists, two have been on game-winning goals. Stastny is first in the tournament in assists (5), second in points (7) and third in faceoff percentage (.660/62-94). He has played in 18 career games in the world championship and has a point in 13 of them.

• CRAIG SMITH HAT TRICK -- Craig Smith (Madison, Wis./Nashville Predators/University of Wisconsin) scored three times in Wednesday's (May 8) 4-1 win over host Finland. It was the first hat trick for a U.S. player in the world championship since Matt Gilroy scored three times in a 10-0 victory over Kazakhstan on May 5 in the 2010 world championship. Prior to that, the most recent U.S. hat trick in the world championship was on May 12, 2008, when Brandon Dubinsky scored three goals in a 9-1 win over Norway. Smith was added to the 2012 U.S. Men's National Team for its final four games in the world championship and recorded two assists. He was also a part of the 2011 U.S. Men's National Team, joining the club following his college season at the University of Wisconsin. He played in all seven games in the world championship and was tops on the team in goals (3) and second in points (6). Smith's performance led to the Nashville Predators signing him over the summer and he wound up making the NHL team to begin the 2011-12 campaign. Smith played eight games at KalPa (SM-liiga) in Kuopio, Finland, during this season's NHL lockout.

• MOSS -- David Moss (Livonia, Mich./Phoenix Coyotes/Univ. of Michigan) has at least one point in three of Team USA's four games and had the game-winning goal against Latvia on Sunday (May 5).

Team USA alternate captains Nate Thompson and Matt Carle grew up together playing youth hockey in Anchorage, Alaska. The two are both current members of the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning.

Matt Carle, Nate Thompson

• STUART FAMILY IS A HOCKEY FAMILY -- Dr. Michael Stuart is the team doctor for the 2013 U.S. Men's National Team and also the chief medical officer for USA Hockey. Stuart, who is the vice chair for orthopedic surgery and the co-director of the Sports Medicine Center at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., has four children, all high-level hockey players. Stuart's daughter Cristin played NCAA Division I hockey at Boston College. She's getting married this summer to Nate Thompson of the 2013 U.S. Men's National Team. Additionally, Stuart's sons Mike, Colin and Mark and all played NCAA Division I hockey at Colorado College and have all played in the NHL. Mark Stuart, who currently is an alternate captain of the Winnipeg Jets, was the captain of the U.S. gold-medal squad at the 2004 IIHF World Junior Championship and also helped the U.S. to a gold medal at the 2002 IIHF U18 Men's World Championship as an alternate captain. Mark Stuart has also played in two men's world championships.

• COACHING STAFF -- Joe Sacco is the head coach of the 2013 U.S. Men's National Team for the first time. Sacco served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at both the 2009 and 2010 IIHF Men's World Championship. As a player, Sacco skated with Team USA at the 1992 Olympic Winter Games and six IIHF Men's World Championships. Tim Army, an assistant coach for the Colorado Avalanche, is serving as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Team for the third time (1994, 1996). He also served as an assistant with the U.S. World Cup Team in 2004. Danton Cole, currently the head coach for the U.S. National Under-17 Team with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, is also serving as an assistant coach for the first time. Cole was the head coach of Team USA at the 2012 IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship in Brno, Czech Republic, where he guided the squad to a perfect 6-0-0-0 record and the gold medal. Phil Housley is serving as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Team for the second time. He was on the U.S. bench at the 2011 IIHF Men's World Championship in Bratislava and Kosice, Slovakia. Earlier this year, Housley was the head coach of the U.S. National Junior Team that won the gold medal at the 2013 IIHF World Junior Championship. In September 2012, Housley was one of two head coaches for the inaugural CCM/USA Hockey All-American Prospects Game in Buffalo, N.Y.

• U.S. SUCCESS IN INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION -- The United States has had great success in international competition this season, beginning with a gold medal at the 2013 IIHF World Junior Championship. The U.S. also won gold at the 2013 IIHF Women's World Championship and has silver medals in the 2013 IIHF U18 Men's and Women's World Championships and the 2013 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship. The U.S. is seeking to medal in the IIHF Men's World Championship for the first time since 2004 (bronze).

• TIDBITS FROM PREVIOUS GAME NOTES -- Overall, all but three of Team USA's 23 rostered players have competed in an IIHF World Championship at the U18, U20 or senior level, including the Olympic Winter Games. The only exceptions are netminder Cal Heeter and forwards Drew LeBlanc and Bobby Butler ... Twenty-one of the 23 members of Team USA played U.S. college hockey. The University of Michigan leads the way with four players that are a part of Team USA, while the University of Denver has three representatives and the University of Minnesota Duluth, University of Minnesota, University of Wisconsin each have two ... Bob Webster is the team leader for the United States for the ninth straight year. Webster had served as Team USA's equipment manager in 15 previous World Championships (1979, 82, 86, 87, 89-96, 2002, 03, 04) ... Team USA's roster includes nine players who have been part of USA Hockey's highly acclaimed National Team Development Program. The group includes forwards Stephen Gionta (2000-02) and Danny Kristo (2006-08); defensemen Matt Carle (2000-02), Justin Faulk (2008-10), Matt Hunwick (2001-03), Erik Johnson (2004-06), Jacob Trouba (2010-12) and Jamie McBain (2004-06); and goaltender John Gibson (2009-11) ... The U.S. won six of its eight games here in Helsinki at last year's IIHF Men's World Championship, however, settled for a seventh-place finish. Team USA won six of its first seven games for only the second time in the history of the event (1939), its .750 winning percentage was its best in the tournament since 1949, and its six total wins were the most in this event in a single year since 1990 ... Team USA has a youthful team in terms of experience at the IIHF Men's World Championship. Of its current 23-man roster, 12 players are making their debut in this event. Only Craig Smith (2011, 2012) and Paul Stastny (2007, 2012) have played in multiple IIHF Men's World Championships, while the remaining nine players have competed in one previous men's world championship. That said, only netminder Cal Heeter and forwards Drew LeBlanc and Bobby Butler have not played in an international competition at some level for the United States ... Drew LeBlanc has had a whirlwind month. He was in Pittsburgh, Pa., in early April playing in the NCAA Men's Frozen Four where his St. Cloud State team lost in the national semifinals on April 11. The next night he was named the Hobey Baker Memorial Award winner as the top player in NCAA Division I men's ice hockey and also signed with the Chicago Blackhawks. LeBlanc played two games with the talent-laden Blackhawks and is now here in Helsinki playing in his first IIHF World Championship ... Matt Hunwick became a father for the first time on March 1 when he and his wife Adrienne welcomed Henry Richard to the family. Hunwick is the only member of Team USA with a May birthday (May 21) ... Jim Johannson, assistant executive director of USA Hockey, is here in Helsinki and is part of the management team of his 15th men's national team at the world championship. Johannson, a two-time Olympian as a player, works full-time for USA Hockey. He was the general manager of the 2013 U.S. National Junior National Team that captured the gold medal at the IIHF World Junior Championship ... Dr. Michael Stuart, chief medical officer of USA Hockey and the U.S. team doctor for this tournament, spoke to a group of physicians here in Helsinki Wednesday afternoon (May 8) about concussions ... Tony Rossi, vice president of USA Hockey and a member of the IIHF Council, arrived on May 7 with his wife Marie and will be here through the remainder of the tournament.

• LEADERSHIP -- Forward Paul Stastny (St. Louis, Mo./Colorado Avalanche/University of Denver) is the captain of the 2013 U.S. Men's National Team. Stastny, who helped the U.S. capture the silver medal at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, has played in two previous IIHF Men's World Championships (2007, 2012). Defenseman Matt Carle (Anchorage, Alaska/Tampa Bay Lightning/University of Denver) and forward Nate Thompson (Anchorage, Alaska/Tampa Bay Lightning) are the team's alternate captains. Thompson was an alternate captain for the 2012 U.S. Men's National Team.

• A ST. LOUIS INFLUENCE -- Team USA has four players that played their formative years in the St. Louis, Missouri, area, including forward Paul Stastny, defenseman Chris Butler and goaltenders Cal Heeter and Ben Bishop. While Bishop's hometown is listed as Denver, Colo. (where he was born), Bishop played youth hockey in the St. Louis suburb of Kirkwood.

• COVERAGE -- NBC Sports Network is televising all Team USA games at the 2013 IIHF Men's World Championship, and all four quarterfinal games. Additionally, all Team USA games will be streamed live online through NBC Sports Live Extra.

• MEDIA GUIDE -- Team USA's media guide is available for download at USAHockey.com. It will be updated throughout the tournament as Team USA's roster changes.

• TOP DRAFT PICKS -- Team USA's roster features 11 players who were drafted in the first two rounds of the NHL Entry Draft, including Nick Bjugstad (2010/Rd. 1, No. 19/Florida); Matt Carle (2003/Rd. 2, No. 47/San Jose); Justin Faulk (2010/Rd. 2, No. 37/Carolina); John Gibson (2011/Rd. 2, No. 39/Anaheim); Erik Johnson (2006/Rd. 1, No.1/St. Louis); Danny Kristo (2008/Rd. 2, No. 56/Montreal); Jamie McBain (2006/Rd. 2, No. 63/Carolina); Aaron Palushaj (2007/Rd. 2, No. 44/St. Louis); Jeff Petry (2006/Rd. 2, No. 46/Edmonton); Paul Stastny (2005/Rd. 2, No. 44/Colorado); and Jacob Trouba (2012/Rd. 1, No. 9/Winnipeg).

• BACK FROM LAST YEAR -- The 2013 U.S. Men's National Team features six players who competed for Team USA a year ago in the IIHF Men's World Championship, including defensemen Chris Butler (St. Louis, Mo./Calgary Flames/Univ. of Denver), Justin Faulk (South St. Paul, Minn./Carolina Hurricanes/Univ. of Minnesota), and Jeff Petry (Ann Arbor, Mich./Edmonton Oilers/Michigan State Univ.) and forwards Craig Smith (Madison, Wis./Nashville Predators/University of Wisconsin), Paul Stastny (St. Louis, Mo./Colorado Avalanche/Univ. of Denver) and Nate Thompson (Anchorage, Alaska/Tampa Bay Lightning). The U.S. lost in the quarterfinals of the 2012 IIHF World Championship and officially finished seventh out of 16 teams at the tournament with a record of 4-2-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L).
