

Biographical Sketch

For

Ronald W. Maestas

Ronald W. Maestas, a former Dean and Professor at New Mexico Highlands University earned Ed.D. degree from Arizona State University; his bachelor's and master's degree in business was earned at Adams State College; he has completed post-doctoral work at the University of Minnesota and Indiana University in Management Information Systems.

1. 2006 Dan Gable America Needs Wrestling Award, NCAA National Wrestling Tournament, Oklahoma City, OK
2. Chair Search-Screening Committee Wrestling
Worked closely with Mike Lujan, Senator Taylor and Senator Rodrigues to secure Legislative Appropriations to support NMHU Wrestling
3. Served two terms (four years) on NMAA Officials Executive Committee as the Representative of Wrestling serving as Chair of the Sports-Specific Wrestling Committee
4. 2010-11 National Federation of High School-New Mexico Wrestling Official of the year.
5. 2002 Inducted New Mexico Highlands University H-Club Hall of Honor
6. New Mexico Highlands University Professor of the Year, 2010

He is the co-author of six textbooks on Microsoft Windows.

While employed at New Mexico Highlands University (1972-present), he was the Men's & Women's Cross Country team; for ten years, he directed the most successful program at New Mexico Highlands University; they were ranked in the top ten in the NAIA; three times they finished in the top four; in 1987, they were Runner-up at the National Cross Country National Championships..

His hobbies include silver/goldsmith, racquetball, and genealogy. He has been a basketball, baseball, softball referee/umpire for the New Mexico Activities Association for 43 years working numerous district, regional and state tournaments. As a racquetball player, he was won the National Singles 60+ C and National Doubles 55+ C.

He is married to Monica Muniz Maestas; they have three children; Lisa Renee Dennis, a CPA/Attorney; Raymond an attorney and Dominic Ron, a professional engineer and a Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering.