

Eagles take NSC lead from Red Knights

Seth Sullwold scattered six hits over six innings and Reggie Meyer worked a 1-2-3 seventh for a save as Totino-Grace took over first place in the North Suburban Conference with a 6-3 win over Benilde-St. Margaret's.

Michael Kaminski battled his way through six innings on the mound but was stung by a combined seven hits from Ben Mezzenga and Brennan Swan, the top two hitters in the Eagles' lineup. Mezzenga went 4-for-4 with three runs scored while Swan was 3-for-4 with three RBI.

After those two, Kaminski allowed just four hits and kept his team in the game.

The Red Knights got on the scoreboard in the top of the first inning as Sam Lynch singled and stole second base to open the frame. Nathan Hanks followed with a base hit and Keaton Studsrud followed with a sacrifice fly to deep center field.

The hosts came back with two runs in both the first and second inning but BSM came back with two runs in the top of the third.

Michael Kaminski pitched his fourth complete game of the season but it wasn't enough to earn him his fifth win.

Nathan Hanks had two hits, raising his average to .488 on the season, and scored a run.

Hanks opened the inning with a bunt single and Studsrud followed with base hit. After the pair moved up a base on a wild pitch, Mikey McGill plated both with a double to right field.

McGill, however, got hung up on Kaminski's deep fly ball to right center, which fell for a double but did not deliver the game-tying run and Totino-Grace would go onto add single runs in the fifth and sixth innings to put the game away.

After Kaminski's double, with no one out in the third, BSM was kept off the scoreboard as Sullwold and Meyer combined to retire 15 of the Red Knights' final 17 batters.

BSM's six hits all came from the top five players in the batting order, with Hanks collecting a pair of singles.

After four consecutive road games, the Red Knights are slated to return home, Friday, for a 4:15 p.m. conference tilt with Irondale.
