Capitals forward Eric Fehr authored a children's book with Pamela Duncan Edwards to raise money for bullying prevention with 100% of the proceeds benefiting Playworks. Bullying is an issue Eric feels strongly about, so he came up with the idea of The Bulliest Dozer to encourage positive behavior and has worked for the past year to make his vision become a reality. In one of the most rigorous scientific trials to find an effect on bullying, researchers from Mathematica Policy Research and Stanford University have found that a Playworks recess can transform school climate, paving the way for less bullying and more focus on learning. Playworks offers training and full-time services for schools and youth development organizations throughout Washington, D.C., Maryland and Virginia.
