NEWBIES: The Swarm are one of five brand new teams in the Midwest Professional Basketball Association, joining the Chicago Force, Gateway Steam St. Louis RiverSharks and Windy City Groove. The Bloomington Flex have played for three seasons, most recently in the Premier Basketball League.

CHAMPAIGN HISTORY: The Swarm are the first professional basketball team in Champaign-Urbana, and one of the only professional sports teams ever in the twin cities. A few minor league baseball teams have called Champaign home in the last century, but none since 1994. Prior to tipoff on Sunday, Champaign mayor Don Gerard issued an official proclamation declaring January 11 "Champaign Swarm Day" in the city.

LOCAL CONNECTIONS: The Swarm's 11-man roster features four local players: Keith Biggers, a Champaign Central High School alumnus; Tiger O'Neil, who played at Champaign Centennial High School and Parkland College; Matt Neaville, a former standout at Urbana High School and Parkland College; and Jordan Walker, who played at Central before transferring to Seton Academy in South Holland, Ill.

THE YOUNG AND THE OLD(?): At 22, the youngest player on the Swarm is Silas Mills, who is in his first season of professional basketball. Carl Mitchell, 35, is the oldest, and he began playing professionally in 2002. The average age of the Swarm is 26 years old.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Swarm forward Arnold Louis and guard Mark St. Fort are first cousins. Both played at Savannah State University, and both were born in The Bahamas.

COACHES CORNER: Chris Daleo is the first head coach in team history. Since 2008, Daleo has served as the Director of Operations for the El Salvador Basketball League and as a global consultant for the Korea Basketball League. From 2006-2008, he was the head coach and general manager for the Minot (N. Dak.) Skyrockets of the Continental Basketball Association (CBA), where his .620 winning percentage is the fifth-highest in league history.

Prior to his stint with the Skyrockets, Daleo was the head coach and general manager from 2002-2006 for the Rockford Lightning in the CBA, where he won Coach of the Year honors in 2003. Under his guidance, the Lightning won conference championships in 2003 and 2005, and his .699 winning percentage is the highest in team history.

While with Rockford, Daleo was selected to coach the conference All-Star Team three times, and was the head coach of a U.S. team that toured China in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Following the 2006 season, Daleo was picked to be one of eight coaches in the Treviso (Italy) Summer League.

Daleo's first head coaching position was with Barat College, where he worked from 1999-2002. His 2002 team made the NAIA Division 1 Final Four, earning him NAIA Division 1 Coach of the Year honors.

SAY "NO MORE": The Champaign Swarm and the Midwest Professional Basketball Association have formed a partnership with the Corporate Alliance to End Partner Violence (CAEPV) to educate its players, staff and fans about saying "NO MORE" to domestic/partner violence and sexual assault.

As the only national organization of its kind, CAEPV is a leading force in the fight against domestic violence, founded by business leaders and focused on the workplace. The organization currently works with Major League Baseball, the National Basketball Association, and was recently asked to consult for the National Football League as it sought to develop a new workplace response to domestic violence and sexual assault.

The MPBA and CAEPV plan to expand the reach of the anti-partner violence/sexual assault message from the workplace to youth-oriented community facilities. Aside from implementing a training/education component, one of the first goals of the partnership will be to develop an official 'no-tolerance' policy toward domestic/partner violence and sexual assault for the league.

DON'T CROSS THE STREAMS: Every game of the MBPA's inaugural season will be streamed live and in high definition for free, thanks to a unique partnership with its Minneapolis-based technology provider Sport Ngin, and Coaches Aid, a media, leadership-development and broadcast services organization based in suburban Denver.

The partnership means Coaches Aid will provide multi-camera, high-definition productions of each MPBA game, live streamed to each team's page on the MPBA website, which is created and hosted by Sport Ngin. Usually, Coaches Aid productions are carried on its own hosted sites.

The partnership also allows Coaches Aid to archive all of the games online for on-demand viewing. Ordinarily, when Sport Ngin provides a live stream on one of its sites, the content is then archived and made available by Sport Ngin.
