

CHICAGO FIRE JUNIORS SC ANNOUNCE ELITE ID CAMP 2017 (FEMALE PLAYERS)

AT LAKE FOREST ACADEMY, LAKE FOREST, ILLINOIS

ABOUT THE ELITE ID PROGRAM

In June 2012, the Chicago Fire kicked-off the 'Elite Player ID Program' with over 1,900 girls playing in Fire Juniors programs across the U.S. The focus of the initiative was to identify 'emerging talent' in the nine Fire Programs, place them in a training camp environment before selecting players to participate in a youth tournament.

2017 will see players return to Lake Forest from August 2 to August 5 to participate in a camp as part of a wider 'Emerging Talent Program'. There is a dual focus of camp: to place players in a professional training environment, and assess their potential before deciding on what age groups can compete in a high-profile showcase tournament event.

Stage 1 Player Identification:

Chicago Fire technical staff at Toyota Park will work closely with Fire Juniors Directors of Coaching to identify elite female soccer players in the following birth years:

- 2004's (born on/after 1/1/04 through 12/31/2004);
- 2005's (born on/after 1/1/05 through 12/31/2005);
- 2006's (born on/after 1/1/06 through 12/31/2006);

Stage 2 Elite Player ID Camp:

Fire Juniors female players will be invited to attend a 4-day training camp at Lake Forest Academy from Wednesday, August 2 to Saturday, August 5, 2017. Players will participate in a series of practice sessions led by Fire technical staff. Off the field, players will attend mental preparation, hydration/nutrition workshops, and more.

Stage 3 Elite Player Selection:

Technical staff will use camp to identify emerging talent in each age group or across two age groups. 16-18 players will be selected to participate in signature tournament event.
