

2015 WBCA SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Bryce Ducharme (Hudson)

Ranked number 1 in his graduating class of 398, Bryce is a motivated individual in and outside the classroom. Bryce has volunteered at various causes in his community and school. Bryce was named team captain for both his Junior and Senior Baseball seasons. Coach Ryan Huppert writes, "Bryce is unquestionably one of the most driven student-athletes in the HHS baseball program. His strong work ethic and his desire to achieve excellence is noticed by his peers, his coaches, and the community." Heading to the University of Wisconsin to study Mathematics.

Connor Hock (Bay Port)

In addition to participating in the All Star Classic, Connor was named 1st Team All-State, and Tri-State Player of the Year in helping Bay Port reach the State Tournament. In addition to being an outstanding student, Connor participated in an incredible number of extra-curricular and volunteer activities. Coach Mike Simoons writes, "Connor is an excellent teacher and role model . . . an exceptional young man with strong moral character and integrity, excellent study habits, and unparalleled motivation." Heading to Notre Dame to study Science or Business.

Sam Kohnle (Kewaunee)

A three-time All-Conference and All-District player, Sam was recently named to the 3rd Team All-State Team, as well as participating for the North team in the All Star Classic. Kewaunee Coach Matt Kohnle writes that "Sam truly has done everything possible to make himself the best he could be." In leading his team to their first conference championship in 23 years, Sam broke four batting records at Kewaunee. Heading to Winona State to study Composite Materials Engineering.

Jonathon Stiever (Cedarburg)

Though Cedarburg High School does not offer class rank, Jonathon would be near the top with a Cumulative G.P.A. of 4.204. Quite an accomplishment, considering he took eight Advanced Placement classes and spent numerous hours volunteering in his community. A team captain for three years, veteran head coach Jack Friess writes of Jonathon, "he is one of the most coachable players I have ever had in my 37 years." Adding, "he does everything to help our team be successful." Heading to the University of Indiana.

Zach Van Wie (Wisconsin Dells)

Ranked #1 in his graduating class, Zach was able to juggle baseball, volunteer work, and a difficult class load and find success in all three. Coach Mike Michalsky writes, "Zach is very well-rounded young man . . . he is one of the finest individuals I've dealt with . . . intellectually gifted in the classroom, and a fierce competitor on the athletic field." Named captain both his Junior and Senior years, Zach gained all-conference and all-district recognition as well. Heading to the University of Wisconsin to study Business.

Logan Wonn (Oconomowoc)

Recently named Tri-State Player of the Year, Logan has built himself quite a resume on the baseball field and in the classroom. Participating in the All Star Classic was only the most recent in a long list of accomplishments for Logan on the baseball field this Spring. His leadership helped propel Oconomowoc to State this Spring. In the classroom, Logan challenged himself with a strenuous class load and finished near the top of his class. Heading to Jacksonville University (FL) to study either Finance or Accounting.

On behalf of the WBCA, congratulations and best wishes to each of the 2014 WBCA Scholarship Winners.

Bob Gawlitta, Wisconsin Rapids