

HOCKEY COMMITMENT AND EXPECTATIONS

Teams are selected for levels in an attempt to provide players an opportunity to play at an appropriate skill level.

Players and parents should expect that the commitment to all teams will require a significant amount of time. Coaches will expect that players attend practices and games. Communicating with the coaches when a player can't be at a game or practice is essential for the coach's preparations. Remember: most ice time, skills development, instruction, and individual improvement occurs by the results of practice.

Each coach will have their own rules and discipline regarding absences. Please respect them to establish these parameters for the team. The MWAHA can't stress enough that regardless of the level your child will play, the commitment he/she is making is significant. Be sure both the player and parent understand this at the time of registration.
