INVITATIONAL

POWERED BY  UNITUS

SESSION II: JULY 11-13

CEDAR LANE PARK | BEL AIR, MD

WELCOME × ×

Inside Lacrosse has always scoured the map in search of talented young players. Over the years we've uncovered future stars from the hotbeds and the hinterlands, from cities to the sticks. We thank you for coming to us this summer.

We recognize that there are other quality events on the calendar. We're proud to have you here and grateful for your support. Our goal is to provide all the elements that make for an enjoyable player's experience – a well-organized tournament, strong competition, fine facilities – and then supplement all of that with the Inside Lacrosse "special sauce."

Our professional team of writers, photographers, talent evaluators, interviewers and videographers will be out in full force to watch you play and cover your experience on and off the field. We'll gather thousands of photos, hours and hours of video, and priceless content about you and your teammates that we can use for years to come.

You will never play in any event ever that will provide more exposure to you as a college prospect. InsideLacrosse.com boasts nearly four million unique visitors and more than 40 million page views. Our family of social media reaches more than 500,000 followers. In addition to the many college coaches that will be in attendance, IL's partnerships with NCSA, Game Time Footage and Front Rush will make your profile available to every college coach.

I strongly encourage you to take full advantage of all the resources available to maximize your ILRI experience.

- × Be rested and mentally and physically prepared.
- × Notify colleges that you're interested in that you will be playing at the IL Recruiting Invitational.
- × Explore our vendor area between games.
- × Have your recruiting and compliance questions answered by the knowledgeable specialists from NCSA.
- × Follow @ILInvitational on twitter and @IL_Invitational on Instagram.
- × Show off your personality during your IL Media Studio session.
- × Be sure to activate your complimentary digital subscription to Inside Lacrosse magazine when the event is over.

This is a unique event. All eyes will be on you, so give it your max effort on the fields and revel in the spirit of competition. Most of all, enjoy the camaraderie of your teammates and simply have fun playing this wonderful game.

Welcome to the IL Recruiting Invitational!
