

Springfield Area Soccer Association

The Springfield Area Soccer Association (SASA) is a competitive youth soccer club whose primary focus is to provide a total, well rounded and positive soccer experience for the player, coach and parent. SASA has fostered the development of a number of outstanding athletes many of whom have gone on to play in college and beyond. Our complex is on the west side of the University of Illinois, Springfield and is home to the Robert Morris University Eagles and hosts many other local area high school games. SASA strives to encourage and assist in the development, growth and improvement of soccer at all levels within the community. It is our firm belief that the only way SASA can continue to thrive and grow is through the active participation of our soccer families and supporters.
