

MARLTON BASKETBALL

BOARD MEMBER, COACH, PARENT & FAN

CODE OF ETHICS

If Benefits are to be derived from athletics, the highest standard of ethics and sportsmanship must be maintained. The ethics and sportsmanship of the players, coaches, officials, and others associated with the game should be exemplary. Everyone participating should conduct himself and herself so that he or she is a credit to the sport. Therefore, we would like to ask for your participation in the following Marlton Basketball Code of Ethics for board members, coaches, parents and fans.

“I hereby pledge to provide positive support and encouragement for my child/player participating in the Marlton Basketball by following this Code of Ethics.”

- I will treat all players, fans and opponents with respect and dignity.
- I will not verbally abuse any coach, player, fan or opponent.
- I will never verbally abuse an official, regardless of the situation.
- I will ask my child/player to treat other players, coaches, fans and officials with respect.
- I will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all coaches, players, fans and opponents.
- I will place the emotional and physical well being of all children/players before any personal desire to win by accepting both victory and defeat with pride and compassion.
- I will applaud all participants' efforts – win or lose.
- I will make it my responsibility to know, understand and appreciate the rules of the game.
- I will have my son to all practices and games. I understand that if he misses 50% plus 1 of all events my son/daughter will not be able to participate in the playoffs.

I will agree that violating this Code of Ethics during a game may have consequences that could cause a parent or a coach to be ejected from that game by the referee. I also understand that all MRC Code of Conduct rules are always in effect.

Parent X _____ Player X _____