The Official Interscholastic Sports Program for NYC Charter Schools

MISSION

The Charter School Athletic Association is a 501c3 non-profit organization that strives to provide all New York City charter schools with the resources and facilities necessary to support a high quality extracurricular program of interscholastic athletics and performing arts. By forging community and school partnerships, the CSAA is determined to ensure that all children in New York City charter schools have equal opportunity to grow into healthy and happy adults committed to the value of cooperation, fairness, and respect.

VISION

The Charter School Athletic Association's vision is to develop and maintain interscholastic sports leagues and arts programs that charter schools and communities can rely on yearly. Our vision is to nurture the charter schools' appreciation for the arts, sports, physical fitness, and nutrition.

GOALS

Motivate students to maintain good academic grades through eligibility requirements Showcase the athletic talents of our charter school students Provide charter schools with annual interscholastic leagues Encourage good sportsmanship Give our charter school community an organized athletic outlet Increase the level of school pride in our charter school community Increase student interaction between charter schools students Encourage parent participation and volunteer support and community involvement Assist in nurturing the relationships among charter schools, staff, students and parents To provide a friendly competitive arena, amongst students with similar Charter School Athletic Association

The Charter School Athletics Association (CSAA) with great interest would like to discuss the possibilities in entering into a partnership by providing an athletic department. We can provide coaches/ staff, league schedules, practice schedules. We have seen in the past the great impact this has on the students and also enhancing school pride.
