The applicant agrees that the GSSC and its summer camp will not be held responsible for any accidents or loss however caused and agrees to release the organization from all claims or damages which may arise as a result of such accident or loss. The applicant also agrees to give any member of the camp’s staff permission to seek out any necessary medical attention a child may require while attending the program. Participants agree to show the utmost respect for the facilities, other players, coaches, and spectators involved with the summer camp. There is a potential risk in training for any sport; it is accepted that the GSSC summer camp has tried to provide a safe environment for all. The camp is based on sufficient registration and GSSC reserves the right to cancel should insufficient demand prevail. All monies shall be refunded if the camp does not run. However, there are no refunds for individual days missed. Pictures will be taken throughout the camp and may be distributed to the media and/or used for marketing by the club.
