Hockey Cheat Sheet

Penalties

Checking from behind: hitting an opponent who is not aware of behind contact and cannot defend himself

Cross Checking: making a check with both hands on the stick

Elbowing: using an elbow to foul an opponent

Fighting: called fisticuffs in the NHL rule book, assessed when players drop gloves and throw punches at one another

Hooking: a player impedes the progress of an opponent by “hooking” them with their stick

Interference: a player impedes the progress of an opponent who does not have the puck, deliberately knocks the stick out of an opponent’s hand, preventing player from picking up dropped equipment

Roughing: striking another opponent in a minor altercation that the referee determines is not worthy of a major penalty

Slashing: a player hits an opponent with their stick to impede progress or cause injury

Tripping: a stick or any portion of a player’s body is used to cause an opposing player to fall

Positions

Goalie: The toughest of all positions, the job entails keeping the puck out of the net and most importantly keeping the team’s confidence up

Defensemen: Usually two on the ice at a time, one on the left side and one on the right

Right Wing: Needs to be a physical player who is good along the boards and in the corner, responsible for the oppositions left defenseman in the defensive zone

Left Wing: Needs to be able to dig out the puck from the corners and battle in front of the net, traditionally a left handed shot

Center: Good at face-offs and passing, coaches need a lot of hockey smarts and creativity from this position
