

APPLICATION

WHS STUDENT NEWSPAPER: THE CURRENT UPROAR

Do you love to write? Do you love media? Do you love being creative? If you answered yes to any of these questions, the WHS's student newspaper is for you. We are a newspaper for students, written by students, and we want talents from comics, photography, art, or any other creative media you can possibly think of. The Current Uproar is a fun but sophisticated place to get your ideas, thoughts, and voices heard. Check out our website for more past issues and more information: <http://www.whsactivities.org/page/show/2139802-school-newspaper-the-current-uproar> (QR code below). So, if you are willing to dedicate yourself to our paper, please fill out this application and questions on the back, to be selected. (For any questions, please contact Neha Jain, chief editor, (currentuproar@gmail.com) or Mrs. Olson.)

Name

Grade

6th hour teacher

Email Address

Any other contact information
(Optional: mailing, phone number, etc.)

(Please turn page)

APPLICATION

What types of media do you enjoy (e.g., short stories, comics, photography, etc.)?

What are some of your creative talents and hobbies?

Have you ever been part of a publication before? How was that experience like? Did you enjoy it?

Do you enjoy community and school events? If so, in what ways do you contribute to them?

What ideas do you have for The Current Uproar: article suggestions, comments, thoughts, etc.(optional)?

What else would you like us to know about you?
