Girls Soccer

Girls Varsity Soccer went 2-0-1 for the week, playing some challenging matches to get the 2018 spring season going.

On Thursday, March 15, the Titans opened up their 2018 spring season against CSL South Division foe Niles North and defeated the Vikings, 3-0.

Junior defender Katie Sullivan opened the scoring from a Grace Evans corner kick assist 2:44 into the game and season. In the 58th minute, sophomore forward Katie Weiss tallied from a Caroline O'Shaughnessy assist and in the 63rd, sophomore forward Ellie Flowers scored her first career varsity goal from a Julia DiSano pass for the victory. Defenders Katie Gates, Challen Flaws, Zoe Nelson, Christie Chrones, Jessica Peters, Grace O'Brien, and Katie Sullivan along with goalkeepers Libbie Vanderveen and Jessica Ehlinger preserved the shutout. Vanderveen earned the win to open the season campaign.

Less than 24 hours later, the Titans played their home opener Friday versus the Whitney Young Dolphins and again the Titans were victorious, 4-1.

Junior forward Makayla Stadler got the team going with a sensational finish from a Katie Gates throw-in in the 17th minute. Junior midfielder Julia DiSano dished out two helpers with goals from junior midfielder Grace Evans (55') and Katie Weiss (64'). Finally, for good measure Katie Weiss added another score with a goal two minutes later in the 66th from a Makayla Stadler helper to seal the deal.

The squad traveled to Glenbrook North to take on central Illinois power Normal Community West in a non-conference battle against the Wildcats and tied 1-1. Katie Weiss scored her fourth goal in three days with a ridiculous corner kick goal directly bent in the 33rd minute off the NCW goalkeeper hands for a 1-0 lead at halftime. The Wildcats equalized in the 46th minute to finish the scoring for the match.

The Titans have three (3) consecutive home games this week leading towards spring break starting Monday night (Monday) versus Glenbrook North at 7:00PM in an enormous crosstown rivalry match.

Tuesday night, the girls finish playing five games in six days with the Hoffman Estates Hawks coming to Glenview for 7 p.m. game.

Finally, the week ends with an important tilt with fellow CSL South opponent, the Evanston Wildkits, at 5 p.m. in John R. Davis Stadium for a chance to get three divisional points and to maintain the lead in the CSL South Division title race.

Go Titans!

Baseball Preview

There's nothing quite like senior leadership on the mound and Glenbrook South returns six senior pitchers for the 2018 season.

That includes Ryan Morrison, who notched a 1.82 ERA last season, and John Miskella and Jacob Newman, who both struck out more than a hitter per inning. Morrison doesn't strike out nearly as many hitters — 14 in 27 innings last year — but he only walked eight in 2017.

The Glenbrook South varsity baseball team has an away non-conference game @ Stevenson (Lincolnshire, IL) on Monday, March 19 @ 4:30p.

Softball

The Glenbrook South varsity softball team has an away non-conference game @ Buffalo Grove (IL) on Wednesday, March 21 @ 4:45 p.m.
