1980 FOOTBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
HARVEY NAASZ, WINNER

Harvey Naasz guided Winner to its first unbeaten football season in fifty years. He has a record of 65-14-1 in nine years at Winner, and also received the coaches association honor in 1974. Naasz began his coaching career in Gettysburg and also coached in Custer and Gregory before moving to Winner.

1980 BOYS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
DAVE ARCHAMBAULT, KYLE

Four years ago in Kyle's first year with a cross country program only five boys reported, and Kyle placed 11th in the state meet. This year sixteen were on the squad and Kyle won its second straight Class B boys championship. The school has also produced the last two individual champions in the 5,000-meter run.

Archambault is a native of Fort Yates, N.D. and a graduate of Black Hills State College.

1980 GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
FRAN ESSER, REDFIELD

Fran Esser's boys' and girls' teams each won their respective Class A divisions at the state meet. This was his fifth year at Redfield. He is the only coach to ever be honored twice within one year as Coach of the Year.

1980 GIRLS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
JOE LOCKWOOD, SIOUX FALLS WASHINGTON

Joe Lockwood guided his team to a perfect record and the state Class A championship. He has been in the Sioux Falls school system since 1958 and got his first head coaching assignment in 1977.

"It proves that no matter where you coach there are people out there pulling for you, and that makes you feel good."

1981 WRESTLING COACH OF THE YEAR
FRAN ESSER, REDFIELD

Esser's Redfield Pheasants went into the state wrestling tournament as heavy favorites and rolled up 157 points to easily outdistance the rest of the field.

1981 GYMNASTICS COACH OF THE YEAR
BILL BEESLEY, WAGNER

Bill Beesley was responsible for developing a gymnastics program at Wagner, and their team rose to dominance in just four years. He had two state "B" championship teams and three individual state champions. His record at Wagner was 73-20.

"The key has just been excellent athletes."

1981 BOYS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
DAN MORAN, STICKNEY

Moran engineered the Raiders through a 24-2 season and in the process collected his 300th coaching victory and his first state championship. This is the second year in a row that he has been chosen Boys Basketball Coach of the Year.

He is a Woonsocket native and a Dakota Wesleyan University graduate and previously coached at Montrose and Letcher.

1981 BOYS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
JERRY McELROY, WATERTOWN

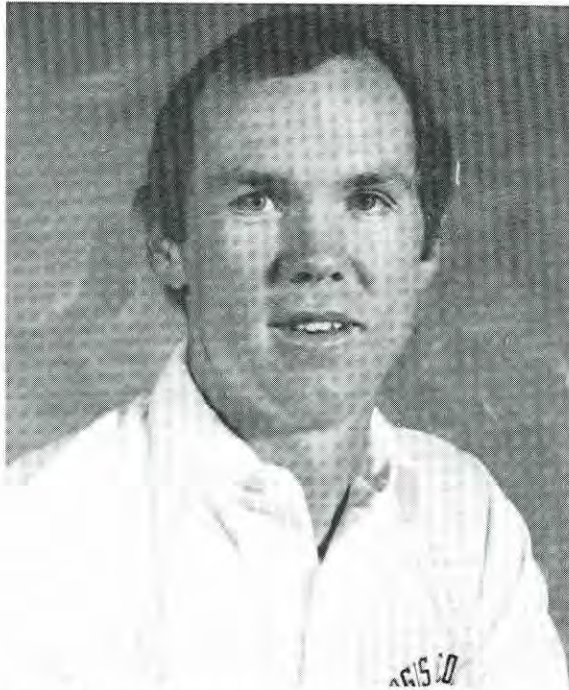

A teacher-coach at Watertown for the past 20 years, McElroy took the reins of the boys' track and cross country programs in the fall of 1979. His 1981 team captured the E.S.D. Conference championship and finished as runner-up in the Class AA division of the state high school track meet.

"I don't think there's a coach alive who wouldn't cherish this honor."

1981 GIRLS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
CAL COREY, STURGIS

Corey has been coaching for ten years, eight at Sturgis. He has developed the team into a strong contender, and they have won the Black Hills Conference title for three straight years.

Corey is a graduate of Winner High School and Black Hills State College.

1981 GOLF COACH OF THE YEAR
JOYCE FARRELL, MADISON

Joyce Farrell has been the girls golf coach at Madison for ten years, and her team captured their second straight E.S.D. Conference crown. They also won the Section 5 title and finished third in the state Class A tournament. They had an 8-1 dual season record.

She is a graduate of Hazel High School and Dakota State College.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR
JACK RICHARDSON, YANKTON

Richardson took over the Athletic Director job at Yankton in 1968, having been with the system from 1958-65. He has served as executive secretary of the S.D. Athletic Directors Association for the past three years.

"I really like seeing kids develop their talents and have success. That has been very gratifying."

1981 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD
DR. GLENN DUNCAN, TYNDALL

Given for outstanding contributions to high school athletics and dedication to the highest and best in high school athletics.

Duncan was a motivating force in starting the sport of wrestling at Tyndall in 1964 and assisted with the program for many years. He has served some 20 years as Head Judge of the Tyndall Relays, and is among the most ardent athletic boosters in the community.

1981 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD
FORREST T. LOTHROP, SIOUX FALLS

Given for outstanding contributions to high school athletics and dedication to the highest and best in high school athletics.

Lothrop coached at Beresford, Dickinson, N.D. and Sioux Falls Washington for eight years. He officiated many years and presently is the head timer at Howard Wood Stadium and Washington basketball games and State B Tournaments.

He continues to do a great deal for South Dakota athletics.

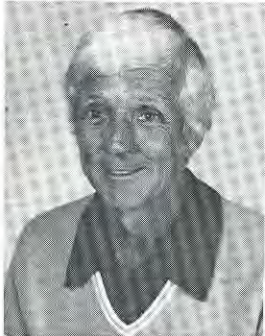

1981 SPORTSCASTER OF THE YEAR
MARK OVENDEN, KSFY-TV SPORTS DIRECTOR

Ovenden, a native of Boston, is in his third year at KSFY. He headed a four-man broadcasting team last year when KSFY carried live coverage of the girls and boys state basketball tournaments.
