* Current NHAA Balance: $32,149.07

* The Board unanimously moved to approve the nomination of Heather Rink to the NHAA Board. Heather is a former NHAA player who now is the Girls 10U NHAA Travel coach.

* In the President's Report, Chad indicated the following:

- Conversations with surrounding communities have begun. Further conversations will happen after the completion of Fall Ball. Reports will be given after these meetings.
- The NHAA Committees will take the lead when it comes to accomplishing key goals. Committee Chairs and members must work together. All members will use a Google Chat feature to communicate.

* Fall Ball 2023 is winding down. Some leagues have completed the season, while other leagues will be done in the coming weeks.

* The goal for the 2024 season is for all NHAA teams to have a game under the lights at Longwood Park.

* Members were asked by various committees to submit any/all ideas for the coming 2024 season.

* More ways to share and publish content and photos regarding NHAA success stories (both Rec and Travel) will be announced.

* The Board unanimously moved to approve modification to age groups for the Boys Babe Ruth league.

* The Board unanimously moved to approve resurrecting the Boys Roberto Clemente league.

* The Board unanimously moved to offer an NHAA Coaches Clinic with the focus on logistics of running a team as well as knowledge of drills and how to conduct productive team practices.

* Further discussion will be had regarding additional Winter Skills Clinic. These would be in addition to the no cost NHAA Rec clinics. Stay tuned for more details.
