Dear Potential Sponsor/Vendor,

Atlantic Coast Events (ACE) is a proud host of volleyball tournaments along the Mid-Atlantic Coast including states such as Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina. We host tournaments that allow for club teams and high school teams to compete at various levels with several allowing teams to compete for a bid to the AAU National Championships. Atlantic Coast Events also offers single day tournaments for teams of every level so that clubs can find an event that satisfies each team.

The money we earn through sponsorships is used to pay our staff and event expenses, grow the sport of volleyball, and spread our name. We believe the sport of volleyball is more than just a game. It is a way for athletes to learn about teamwork, good sportsmanship, healthy competition, but also so much more. It is a way for each player to learn more about themselves as individuals and how they contribute to the bigger picture. It allows the athletes to learn about integrity, friendships, communication, and so many other great characteristics and skills useful in the real world.

Join us during the 2019 club volleyball season! We have several opportunities for sponsors at our tournaments listed below with a range of options for sponsorship packages.
