

PGYSA/PGFC IMPACT – March 2021 Coach Recognition Release

As sport evolves and requires certified coaches to implement modern training methods, the PGYSA/PGFC IMPACT Club has invested over $10,000 since November 2018, supporting Club Coaches achieve their C-License coach certification. The latest Club Coaches attaining their C-License Trained status are Dylan Zummack and Gerry Wyers. Dylan and Gerry are the 13th and 14th Club Coaches to have reached this significant achievement over the past few years. We are very proud of them for reaching this personal coaching milestone.

- We would also like to congratulate the following Club Coaches for recently achieving their full C-License certified status. The Club will now support these Staff Coaches as they continue to work on furthering their NCCP and Canada Soccer certifications.
 - Collin Payne
 - John Botelho
 - Alex Nielson
 - Abduallah Al Nahhas

- Arianna Payne, who became the youngest ever female C-License trained coach in the PGYSA/PGFC at the age of 16, is completing her final coursework to become fully C-License certified. We are extremely proud of her and look forward to providing ongoing coach mentorship while she plays soccer for the Grande Prairie Regional College.

- We would like to also like to recognize the following youth coaches, who started their coaching pathway working with our Grassroots players over the past two years: Chloe English, Victoria Schinkel, Hannah Beetlestone, Leah Robinson, Lauren Polillo, Clara Bogle, Matt Botelho, Emraj Kearns, Yanni Ntapas, and Brennan Ridsdale. Our Youth Coach Development program will provide support for our youth coaches as work on their coach certifications.

The full list of Coaches our Club has supported with financial subsidization or mentoring support since November 2018 is posted below. We thank each coach for their dedication to the game.
