HOT SHOTS FINEST HOUR !!!

CONQUER PACMEN 3-1, 5-2

It seemed like forever - they would make the long haul in from Bklyn almost instinctively now. Down the Belt - up the bridge fidgeting around starry-eyed for that extra quarter that would "free" their "wheels" from the clutches of a funny looking wooden arm which at the moment was cutting into their pre-game "tune-up". Finally on their way, 3 speed traps and 48 minutes later they come ----- Ronnie "springing" out enthusiastically almost before the car comes to a screeching halt, with arsenal of bats in hand while line-up cards and glove is tucked under the right armpit. Richie methodically makes his way onto the turf trying to slip his 6'6" frame among the crowd, thereby avoiding all the bad jokes about the '82 version of the B.B.'s. Almost like clock work - week in and week out - 3 hours and some change later, though they and the rest of the squad would play their hearts out-somehow, someway another team or two would have their record fattened at the expense of a disbelieving "sure shot" "Hot Shot" soon to be "Long Shot" entry. Richie would make his way back through the woods waiting for Ikey to come with the post-game, as Ronnie continues standing in the field hand on hips shrugging his head while talking to himself, wondering what went wrong. This Sunday it ended. Swiftly, naturally, yet timely, -- with the big "E" waiting to place the Hot Shots in the annals of the D.S.S. League alongside the likes of "Super Heroes," "Los Machos" and the "Force". All that potential that went unrealized jelling together in a big double dipping of Pacmen. Marty Hoffstein on the mound in complete "control" all morning long surrendering a mere 3 runs in the twin-bill. Mitchell Haddad 3 for 3 in Game 2 after some aggressive baserunning in opener to score their run. Charlie Semah 5 for 6 on day with numerous big hits. Elliot Harary -- reborn again in L.F. Eddie Blanco with a super defensive effort at 1st base. Eli Tawil, a strong battery-mate for Hoffstein behind the plate. Capt. Ronnie again putting on a defensive clinic including a game-saving 2-on 2 out over the shoulder catch to preserve first game victory. The man of the hour (if not the man of the day) however for Hot Shots was the big fella. It was the "Richie Gindi show" all morning long with a HR, triple, triple and 4 R.B.I.'s in Game two coupled with a first game, first inning 2 run triple accounting for at least 6 of total Hot Shots output 8 runs on day. A gargantuan display of offense the likes of which few can ever even dream of. Hot Shot heroics not only cancelled their reservation with the big "E" but with only 2 short weeks remaining in regular season they now control their own destiny. Win four straight - bring up the record to 7-9 and they're in playoffs no matter what any other team does here on in. What a pleasant ride home it must have been.

JAMES GANG 4-2 POWER PLAY 13-2 ON THE SPLIT

A four run first inning gave James Gang the opening win. Big hit was a 2 run double by Eli Jemal. Power Play with first place on the line comes roaring back in Game 2 behind 2 tremendous home runs by Sammy Cohen and an Eddie Gindi 3 run job. "Frontman" posts 12 straight goose eggs on scoreboard after surrendering opening 4 to Gang who close double header with 2 in the final 7th.

ALAMOS "QUITE" VENOM 4-2, 11-1

Twin-killing vaults Alamos into 2nd place in National Division just in time for this weeks "showdown" with 1st place 911. Heavy hitting from Joey Braha with 5 for 7 4 R.B.I. day. Eddie Azar leaves for Israel with brother Irwin after a 4 for 6 afternoon. Both will be sorely missed by Alamos. Bobby Morabia a perfect 4 for 4 on day. Eli Dweck with timely hitting including 2nd Game home run. Morris Swed provided the charge to whole Alamos team. And finally Sammy K with a big grand slam home run in matinee giving Alamos a 6-0 cushion, breaking game wide-open ---

WOODSTOCK 3-2 BUMS 3-1 SHARE VICTORIES

Game one was an extra-inning affair with Victor Zilberman's home run to right center field winning it for Woodstock in top of ninth. Bucky Doueck filling in for a travelling scouting Harvey S. with a fine job on the mound. Elliot Betesh guns out his counterpart at place in inning 2 killing Bum rally. Bums close the door in Game 2 however earning big split and keeping in thick of things in National Division.

U.S.A. 14-6 GEMALS PALS 10-8 SLUGFEST

Moshe Dweck, Freddie & Reddie combine for 8 hits in Game one Moshe a perfect 7 for 7 on day before being retired in Game 2. Richie Braha with key 2 out 2 run H.F. sparkling by Eddie Mishaan in C.F. Jack Saban with 3 doubles. Norman Levy snuffs out runner at plate. Pals battled back in Game 1 with a David Shriqui 2 run poke bringing them close before U.S.A. went ahead for good with 2 in 4th and big 7 in 5th. ----- Pals pull ahead 8-1 in Game 2 via 6 run third inning --- Bang Bang play by Eddie Gindi at home plate shut door on U.S.A. and sparked Pals. Elliot Braha 3 for 4 Zak 3 for 3 Zuti 4 for 4 on day. This time U.S.A. comes back to within 8-7 before a Kemmy Cohen 2 run double gave Pals margin of victory. Shoe-string catch by Michael D in R.F. helped Pal cause in final frame.

911 "GUNS DOWN" HURRICANE 2-0, 2-1

First affair was scoreless till top of 7th on a day which saw a lot of foul ball souveneirs for fans on both sides. 911 pushes across 2 in 7th behind S.F. and Charles singles a Marvin sac fly R.B.I. and after an intentional pass to Danny Erani they wrap it up on a ground ball to S.S. off bat of "Mums" and a wild throw home. Game 2 was the same story 0-0 this time till 6th as 911 breaks through via a bases loaded walk to Uncle Irv. Hurricanes storm back in top of 7th to tie on back to back singles by Haddad and "Lawley" and a R.B.I. ground out by Joel Nesser. 911 wraps it up in bottom of 7th as they load them up ---- 2 outs and Charles' grounder to S.S. is thrown to 3rd for force but not handled with winning run trotting home. Double win improves 911 League leading record to 10-2 ----- speaking of cause for celebration Mabrouk to Barbra and Danny on birth of baby girl - score there - 1 and 1 -----

P.S. 3 teams clinched playoff slots with 5 more to follow. Stay tuned -- Bums - Alamos - Power Play 1 victory away.
