We are pleased to announce our partnership with Katie Lee, owner of All American AIM and Head Coach at Eastern High School. As Director and Head Coach of ISC Sports Academy's Lacrosse programs, Katie will oversee our Fall and Winter Clinics, Indoor League and President's Day Tournament. Our goal is to provide a quality girls indoor lacrosse program for players of all ages and skill levels.

Katie will offer a dynamic lacrosse training environment where players will master the mental, physical, tactical and technical skills of the game.

Players will develop and improve individual skills and team play guided by our experienced coaching staff and the intense and encouraging training environment. This clinic is offered for players of all levels. Players will be placed in groups where they will be able to compete and grow.

It's the extra effort that turns good players into great players. Participating in our clinics, league and tournament play enables you to truly become the best player you can be! We look forward to working with you!
