ADMINISTRATION

Alan D. Osterndorf, Ph.D., Superintendent

Athletics is an important part of a school district's total educational program. Through athletics, students have the opportunities to learn new skills, apply skills learned in other situations, be leaders, be followers and be able to exhibit positive attitudes which are of value now and in the future. Wrestling, as an interscholastic sport, provides all of the opportunities listed above and some unique opportunities as well. In one sense, wrestling is a individualized sport as people of all sizes and weights have equal opportunities to succeed. On the other hand, it takes everyone working together for a team to have a successful season. Finally, wrestling is just plain exciting to watch. I'm looking forward to seeing our Cardinal wrestlers in action this year. I hope you are too.

Mr. Jon Kaiser, Principal

We are very proud of our athletic program at Goodrich High School. Being new to the high school, I am very impressed by the dedication of both coaches and athletes. There is strong community support for our programs.

I would like to wish the coaches and the members of the wrestling team a successful 1986-87 season.

Mr. Gale Zimmerman, Athletic Director

Interscholastic Athletics here at Goodrich High School are considered an integral part of the total educational program. It is our philosophy that athletics serve as media through which optimum growth can be reached physically, mentally, socially and morally by those students participating in our programs. Through the seventeen sports that are offered to our boys and girls, we feel that each and every one has an opportunity to participate in a wholesome athletic endeavor.

COMPLIMENTS OF

JCPenney

Wrestling has been around longer than anybody knows for sure - probably since the first two men contested for leftovers! As a sport, it is mentioned as early as 3000 B.C. in Egypt and Babylonia and in the works of classical writers Homer and Virgil.

The first collegiate meet, however, did not take place until 1900 between Yale and Penn. Some 40 years later in Appleton, Milwaukee Washington edged out Green Bay West for the first Wisconsin state high school championship!

High School Wrestling looks a little different today than it did in the "good old days", but there are still the same thrills and excitement. It's a beautiful sport to watch, requiring both mental and physical agility to be a winner.

In every wrestling meet, there are twelve weight classifications that team members enter for competition. To wrestle in a weight category, the athlete cannot weigh more than the following amounts: 98, 105, 112, 119, 126, 132, 138, 145, 155, 167, 185 and unlimited (minimum 175 pounds). To insure each wrestler qualifies to compete in the respective divisions, there is a weight-in held before each meet. It is conducted 1/2 to 3 hours before the meet. If an athlete goes over his entered weight class, he forfeits the match.

The wrestling area is composed of cushioned mats and can be either circular or square in shape. It must have additional mat protection around the edges.

A match is 6 minutes long and divided into 3 equal periods. Each wrestler is given either a green or red ankle band so he may be identified during the match. The first period is started in a neutral position; the wrestlers face each other in a standing position on opposite sides of the starting circle. The second and third periods begin on the starting lines with first one wrestler, then the other in a position of advantage. This is called the referee's position. At the beginning of the second period one wrestler (determined by a flip) will have four options: to be on his feet, top position, bottom position or to defer his choice until the 3rd period.

At the referee's signal, each period is started and the wrestlers try to win in two ways: pin or decision. The quickest and most dramatic way is the fall or pin: a wrestler holds his opponent's shoulder to the mat continuously for 2 seconds. If neither wrestler scores a pin during the 3 periods, a decision is given to the wrestler with the most individual match points. (A tie results in 2 one-minute overtime periods; if still tied, the referee's and judge's votes decide the winner.)

There are several ways to earn match points worth one, two or three points:

- TAKEDOWN - an opponent is brought to the mat and controlled from a neutral or standing position. Two points.
- ESCAPE - a wrestler breaks away from the opponent's control into a neutral or standing position. One point.
- REVERSAL - a wrestler reverse his opponent and gains control ... in one continuous maneuver. Two points.
- NEAR FALL - a wrestler almost gets a pin; his opponent's shoulders are momentarily held with 4" or less of the mat; or one shoulder is touching the mat and the other is held at an angle of 45° or less to the mat. Two points. Or, if either situation occurs continuously for 5 seconds. Three points.

There are three common infractions that can cost a wrestler points:

- STALLING - this is a matter of not trying for a takedown or escape or simply not wrestling aggressively. After a warning, continued stalling gives the opponent one point.
- ILLEGAL HOLDS - there are several specific holds that are dangerous or punishing to a wrestler. These are known to all competitors and anyone using them loses one point to his opponent.
- TECHNICAL VIOLATIONS - there are a number of situations or actions that can cost a wrestler one point: delaying a match; intentionally going off the mat; clasping hands around opponent's body or legs while in a position of control.
