

Antoinette Jewel Williams - Class of 2015

As a four-year starter and letterwinner in soccer, Annie helped lead Park to a combined record of 33-12-4. She served as team captain in both 2013 and 2014 and was recognized with All-Conference honors for three consecutive years (2012-2014). Her achievements include being named to the All-State First Team (2013, 2014), Pioneer Press All-Metro First Team, Star Tribune All-Metro First Team, and the United Soccer Coaches All-Regional Team. She capped off her high school soccer career as a Miss Soccer Finalist in 2014.

In basketball, Annie was also a four-year letterwinner, team captain in her senior year, and helped her team win the Suburban East Conference Championship in 2014. She earned All-Conference and Honorable Mention honors, and contributed to the team reaching the 3AA Section Finals three times. Annie also lettered in lacrosse in 2014, and was the 2015 Athena Award Winner, which recognizes outstanding female athletes.

Annie continued her soccer career at the collegiate level, playing at South Dakota State University from 2015 to 2019. She has played professional soccer since 2020, competing with Parma in Italy's Gainbridge Super League and currently with Brooklyn FC in the USL. Annie currently lives in Westbury, New York.

ACCEPTANCE REMARKS:

I'm both humbled and thankful to be inducted into the Park High School Hall of Fame. I was blessed to be around so many coaches who cared about me as a person first and an athlete second. To my coaches: thank you for giving me a foundation of values I still take with me on and off the field. My time at Park High shaped me in ways I'm still grateful for today and I will always value the community that made being a student athlete at Park High School something truly special.

Jimmy Pahl - Class of 1980

At Park, Jimmy lettered two years in football earning Honorable Mention All-Conference honors, four years in hockey, where he served as team captain, and three years in baseball, where he was also a captain, a two-time All-Conference selection, and an All-State honoree. His peers recognized his athletic excellence and character by voting him Most Athletic Male.

Jimmy dedicated 35 years as a mathematics teacher, impacting students at both the high school and middle school levels. In 2005, Jimmy became the first-ever honorary member of the Ashwaubenon High School National Honor Society, a distinction created to recognize a teacher who best embodies the organization's ideals of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Jimmy also extended his passion for athletics through coaching. He coached junior varsity baseball at Elk River High School (MN) and Lower Richland High School (SC), and later joined the Ashwaubenon High School (WI) varsity baseball coaching staff. His contributions to Ashwaubenon Youth Baseball include coaching in-house leagues for seven years and leading teams from ages 9-14, capturing a Babe Ruth State Championship in 2010.

Jimmy and his wife, Joy, live in Green Bay, Wisconsin, with their two children, Chloe and Hunter.

ACCEPTANCE REMARKS:

I am grateful and profoundly honored to be inducted into the Park High School Hall of Fame. My heartfelt thanks go to the Hall of Fame committee for this recognition, and to Dave Bonko for the nomination—your support means the world to me.

I owe so much to my parents, Fred and Goldie, whose unwavering love and support shaped who I am. As the oldest of three boys in a house full of sports, they were constantly on the go, but they never missed a moment. They instilled in me the values of hard work and perseverance, teaching me that if I gave my best, opportunities would follow.

That mindset carried me through both the classroom and the playing field. I was fortunate to have coaches and teachers at Park High who not only pushed me to grow but also believed in me every step of the way. Their encouragement made a lasting impact, and I am grateful to have been guided by such dedicated mentors.

Walter Newcomb - Coach/Community Member

For over 30 years, Walter Newcomb has devoted his career to teaching, coaching, and fostering community at Park High School. He is a 1985 graduate of Woodbury High School.

In athletics, Walter made an enduring impact through nearly three decades of coaching baseball and girls soccer. As part of the Park High School girls soccer program from 1994 to 2020, he helped lead the team to over 300 wins, multiple conference titles, and numerous section final appearances. His excellence was recognized in 2004 when he was named both Section 3AA Girls Assistant Coach of the Year and Minnesota State High School Coaches Association Girls AA Assistant Coach of the Year.

Beyond teaching and coaching, Walter has been instrumental in shaping the Park High School Hall of Fame. From helping to design its by-laws and physical space to chairing the committee and maintaining its website and scholarship initiatives, his leadership has strengthened the school's legacy of excellence.

Walter continues to teach at Park High School. He lives in Woodbury with his wife Kathy and has two children, Ben and Maggie.

ACCEPTANCE REMARKS:

It is truly an honor and privilege to be inducted into the Park High School Hall of Fame. I was fortunate to be able to coach for 28 years. It would not have been possible without the support of the many talented student-athletes, coaching colleagues, and the greater Park community. I grew personally and professionally from the interactions with the student-athletes and the relationships developed with fellow coaches. Special thanks to my family, who have supported me throughout my coaching and teaching career.

Sydney (Lamberty) Lopez - Class of 2014

Sydney left an indelible mark on the school's athletic history as one of the most accomplished basketball players to ever wear the Wolfpack uniform. She played five seasons of varsity basketball. A dominant force on the court, Sydney became Park High School's all-time leading scorer with 2,294 points. She earned All-Conference honors three times, received All-State honorable mention honors in 2012 and 2013, and was named to the All-State team in 2014. Sydney also led her team to the SEC Championship that same year.

After graduating from Park, Sydney continued her basketball career at Creighton University, where she was a four-year starter for the Bluejays. During her collegiate career, Sydney played in 129 games, amassing 1,286 points, averaging 10 points per game, and recording 497 assists (an average of nearly 4 per game). Her consistent performance and team-first mentality helped guide Creighton to the NCAA Tournament in both the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons, where the team advanced to the second round each year. Sydney was a member of the Big East All-Tournament team in 2017 and earned Creighton Female Athlete of the Year for 2017-2018 school year.

Sydney works as a freelance graphic designer. She and her husband Nicky live in Scottsdale, Arizona.

ACCEPTANCE REMARKS:

It is an absolute honor to be inducted into Park High School's Hall of Fame. Thank you to Coach T for the nomination, and to everyone who has played a role in my journey. A special thank you to my parents, my biggest supporters. Park High School basketball played a huge role in shaping my game and my career. I will always cherish the memories and friendships I made along the way. I am truly grateful for the recognition. Thank you.

D'Monte Farley - Class of 2012

As a track and field athlete, D'Monte was a standout sprinter and jumper, a two-time All-State selection, and anchor of Park's 2012 State Champion 4x100m relay team and 2011 All-State 4x200m relay. He set school records in the long jump and 4x100m relay and ranks #2 all-time in the 100m and 200m, and #3 in the triple jump .D'Monte earned four varsity letters in football, playing running back, wide receiver, and defensive back, He was awarded All-Conference Honorable Mention and served as team captain. In wrestling, he competed in the 152-160 lb classes, achieving three varsity letters, All-Conference Honorable Mention, and serving as honorary captain. D'Monte excelled academically, graduating with a 4.0 GPA and Highest Honors.

He continued his athletic and academic journey in collegiate track and field, competing for the University of North Dakota and later the University of North Carolina. At North Dakota, he was a USATF Junior All-American in the triple jump, earning USTFCCCA All-Academic, All-Conference, and Academic All-Conference honors. At North Carolina, he made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, placed 5th in the ACC 4x100m relay, and received the Scholar-Athlete and UNC Iron Ram awards for excellence in athletics and academics.

ACCEPTANCE REMARKS:

It is truly an honor to be an inductee into the Park High School Hall of Fame. I owe much of my development and achievements not just to God, but to the unrelenting support of my mother, family, coaches, teammates, and Park High community who made every practice, game, and tournament incredibly impactful. I am grateful for my previous achievements, but am more grateful for the lifelong connections I have built through sport and this amazing community. It is with great humility that I accept this nomination.
