Happy Daze Run Up the Score...Again!

Usually a team can post 20+ runs once in a year. But twice in 2 weeks? Happy Daze took the field at Logan Road against the Ball Busters for a double header that had the two teams positioned very differently in the playoff race. Buca & Co. were vying for first place, while the Ball Busters could be on the verge of elimination if they lost both games. As usual, ChubChe Kassab pitched very strong in the first game, holding Happy Daze down for a while. Eddie Mishan was thrown out at the plate in the second to keep it scoreless. But in the 3rd, Vic Ashkenazi came up with a huge triple. Joey Cohen scored, and Sut followed up with an RBI single of his own. Meanwhile, on the other side of the mound, Red was orchestrating a masterpiece. He gave up one hit thru the 1st 4 innings, until Richie Shalom and Steven Ashear finally got to him. Ashear's triple brought Shalom in, and he later scored too. But that was all the support the Ball Busters could give Chubby, and it wasn't enough to win the game. Vic Ashkenazi's second triple of the game was a shadow of the first, with Sut driving him in again. That was all that Red would need, as he seemed unhittable in this one. Richie Shalom tripled late in the game and scored. But with Steven Ashear on first, the Ball Busters couldn't come thru as they hit into a double play to end the game.

FINAL: Happy Daze-4 Bull Busters-3

"they're leading the league in offense, and with the way Red is pitching, they will be a force in the playoffs.."

Happy Daze continued to roll. Although they eeked out the 1st game, the Ball Busters hope was short lived in this game. It was another one of those pitching duels. The ones where one pitcher gets shot down and a team goes for 20 runs. The amazing thing about the Happy Daze is that they have not pounded out their scoring with huge triples and home runs. In fact, other than a late inning Eddie Mishan home run, all of their hits were either singles or doubles. But no matter how you count it, they tallied 22 runs. They are leading the league in offense, and with the way Red Nesser is pitching, they'll be a force to reckon with come playoff time. As for this game, the big inning came in the 3rd when they put together 10 runs. Not only did every player score a run in this game, but 7 players scored at least twice including David Ancona's 4 runs scored (he's leading the league with 18). Red's 4 RBI's helped him earn player of the week honors for the 78th time in his illustrious career. Stevie Beda went 5 for 5 and his team had 21 hits! As for Ball Busters their only bright spot was the play of Michael Solomon and Abie Tobias. Solomon went 3 or 3 with a pair of triples, and Abie Tobias' late inning home run, although meaningless, will look good in the box score. FINAL: Happy Daze-22 Ball Busters-3
