Our Mission

Our mission is to help players develop and refine fundamental skills to prepare them for a long, exciting, and successful hockey career. We focus on helping players develop the right habits through one-on-one personalized instruction, laying the groundwork for fast and consistent growth.

Required Equipment

Each student is expected to bring full pads, skates, and a stick for each day of camp.

Each student should also bring a bag lunch each day.

DMV Hockey Development Camp

- POWER SKATING
- STICK-HANDLING
- DECISION-MAKING
- OFF-ICE HOCKEY SKILLS
- STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

During the camp, we work with each student to develop individualized goals for the week. We assign daily “hockey homework” for the skaters to complete in support of their instruction.

At the end of the week, we provide a report card on their progress for the week, and recommendations for future skill development.

Daily Camp Schedule

Drop Off	8:30 am
Pick Up	4:30 pm

Our Head Instructors

Shane Stillwell

Shane grew up in Montgomery County, advancing through the highest levels of amateur hockey. He reached A level junior hockey, traveling across the country and to Canada. As head coach of the Walter Johnson junior varsity team in 2015-2016, he led the team to a state championship. He has coached for several local clinics including Nothing But Net and DC Hockey.

Canaan Schjolin

Canaan is the head coach of Rockville Ice Arena’s Hockey Initiation Program and the rink’s Learn to Play program, sponsored by the Washington Capitals. He has over five years of experience as a private instructor and has served as an assistant coach for Marianne Watkins’ highly-touted Steel Power power-skating camps.
