

Saturday, April 27, please join us for special guest speaker:

Hayley Skarupa

Hayley will be talking about her experience playing in the Southeastern District and her journey to the 2018 Olympics.

Hometown: Rockville, Md.

High School: Thomas S. Wootton High School

College: Boston College

Team/Club: Boston Pride (NWHL)

Significant Achievements

Was twice named a top-10 finalist for the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award
Named Hockey East Rookie of the Year in 2013

Professional Career

Was drafted by the National Women's Hockey League's New York Riveters with the ninth pick overall (first pick, third round) in the 2015 NWHL Draft and has played two seasons in the NWHL

2017-18 - Boston Pride (NWHL)

Left the Boston Pride in November 2017 to train with the U.S. Women's National Team

2016-17 - Connecticut Whale (NWHL)

College Career

Played four seasons at Boston College (HEA)

2015-16 (Senior)

Named a Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award top-10 finalist

Helped the Eagles to only the second undefeated regular season in NCAA history

Earned Second Team All-American honors and First Team Hockey East All-Star

2014-15 (Junior)

Named a Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award top-10 finalist and Hockey East All-Star Second Team

2013-14 (Sophomore)

Selected for the Hockey East All-Star First Team

2012-13 (Freshman)

Named the Hockey East Rookie of the Year, Hockey East All-Star Second Team and Hockey East All-Rookie Team

Set a conference freshman scoring record

High School Career

Attended Thomas S. Wootton High School (Rockville, Md.)

Girls' 19 & Under

Was a seven-time Women's National Festival invitee (2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015) and three-time Winter Camp participant (2010, 2011, 2012)

Skated at 2011 Girls' 17 Player Development Camp, 2010 Girls' 16 Player Development Camp, 2009 Girls' 15 Player Development Camp, 2008 Girls' 14 Player Development Camp