Scheduler subcommittee	LTP: In session 2, sign ups dropped a little from session 1. Creating an 8u house program for some of the developed LTP kids. Kids are having fun and have had good high school participation. 8u: Going well, some players moving around based on skill level. Minors moving to majors, extra ice time for others. Merry Mites tourney in Rutland went well, Ike Lee coming up at end of January. 10u: Attendance for games has dropped a bit but kids are doing great. Added a player from LTP. Had a team pizza party at Ramunto's. Families are requesting off ice events. Have had a great mix of game levels. 12u: Having a great season, 14 kids, getting a lot of ice time. Great hockey being played in both tiers. Heading to Nashua for a tournament

		with 10u this month. 14u: Tier 4 has been mixed. Tier 3 is ranked number 1. Has been a big adjustment for woodstock kids but the hockey has been great. Multiple tournaments and travel but enjoying the experience. Good representation of Woodstock coaches in Swarm as well. Girls: The season is going great. The commitment is greater with the older girls. The younger group seems less committed, but multiple people are dual rostered. Not winning the majority of games, but girls are happy regardless. State Report:
