

Hockey Initiation Program 2: Youth In-House Hockey League

Hockey Initiation Program 2 is open to all players who have completed Hockey Initiation Program (HIP) or another clinic/instruction program. The goal of the league is to have scrimmage games for young skaters who are not ready for organized hockey, but are ready for the next step after HIP. This class is for players who have completed HIP at least twice. This series of the program is one hour in length for 7 weeks.

Focus of Program:
Increase and Strengthen skills from HIP.
Introduce game skills in a small game and full ice setting.

Required equipment: HECC certified helmet, hockey skates, hockey gloves, shin pads, and stick.
*Additional family members registering for the same series receive a 10% discount.
