Real SY Angels and Ezra Clinch a BYE by taking the Boys Of Summer for a PAIR.

Game #2

The One - Two punch of the Real SY Angles were too much for the boys of summer to handle. Eddie (Walkman) AzarCohen was the right up-percut and Ezra (Player Of The Week) Ashkenazie was the left hook. Not even Mike Tyson could have overcome this lethal combination on this day. Bobby Kassin doubled in the first and only run for the Boys Of Summer in the third inning. But the Real SY Angles came back in thier half of the third to knot the game at 1 - 1. With 2 outs Sandy Zinn tripled and Ed Azar singled him in to tie the game. Then in the 5th inning with the Real SY Angles leading 2-1, Ed Azar womped a 2 run dinger with 2 outs to ice the game and give his team a 4-1 victory. Ezra Ashkenazie scatterd 7 hits (six of those were singles) and appear to be in his usaul top playoff form.

The same One - Two Punch did it again in this game to give the Real SY Angles second place and a BYE. In the first inning Eddie (Sony) Azar continued where he left off by rocking a solo homer to give his team a 1-0 lead. In the second inning the Real SY Angles put the game away with RBI walks by Steve Shalom and Sandy Zinn. A 3-0 lead for Ezra (Cy Young) Ashkenazie is like money in the bank. Capt. Ike Dweck and his all-star Sammy Tawil also chipped in with RBI singles in the 5th inning. Ezra only allowed 5 hits and 1 run to lead his team to a 5-1 victory. Despite the sweep the Boys Of Summer were able to back in to the playoffs.

The Front Runners finally met a team sorer than themselves, and they took advantage of real fast. The Front Runners were in last all season long but with this sweep they finished in 7th place and put the Bumbling Bahama Mama team in to last place. Fred Zalta tossed a 5 hitter in this game and allowed only 2 runs to allow his team to take some rays and pummel the Bahama Mamas at the same time. Abe Dweck highlighted a 4 run second inning with a 3 run homerun. Eli (Cerrano) Zilberman also knocked in 3 runs as the Front Runners took the 1st game 9-2. For The Bahama Mamas Moe (Gold Fish Assassin) Levy clouted a long and towering homerun.

Albert (Nolan Ryan) Levy pitched a six hitter to give the Front Runners their first sweep of the season. The Bahama Mamas scored 2 runs in the 1st inning on a long long Moe Levy SAC fly, but that was all she wrote. Albert just allowed 5 singles the rest of the way. With 2 outs in the 6th inning and the Front Runners leading 4-2 they went on to score 8 runs to put the final nail in the coffin, and end the Bahama Mamas season. For the Front Runners Erwin Braha, Abe Dweck and Fred Zalta banged out 3 hits apiece. David Betesh went 4 for 4 and played a sparkling left field.
