

Coyotes: 2025 - 2026 Code of Conduct for Players

The Lower Cape Coyotes organization strives to uphold high standards of sportsmanship, integrity and ethics to benefit the youth in our program. To do this, we ask that all members support each other in emphasizing the importance of what is expected from our Coyote's family and friends at practices and games as competitors and spectators.

Players: Please read each of the rules and regulations in the table below and initial next to each of them in acknowledgement.

Initial:	Code of Conduct Rules:
	I will arrive on time for all team activities and be properly equipped for each game and practice.
	I will demonstrate positive behaviors and respect toward teammates, opponents, coaches, officials, parents, spectators, and fans alike.
	I will exhibit good sportsmanship before, during, and after each practice and game regardless of the outcome.
	I understand bullying behavior will not be tolerated.
	I understand that receiving a game misconduct in any capacity, especially fighting, will not be tolerated and will have serious consequences.
	I will not use profanity, racial or ethnic slurs, or any other form of offensive language.
	I will never intentionally hurt another player, nor will I engage in any form of physical or verbal abuse, either on or off the ice toward other players, coaches, officials, or spectators.
	I will play within the rules and adhere to the instructions and decisions of the referees and coaches.

By signing below, I am agreeing to abide by and uphold the "Code of Conduct" for myself, all family members, and guests attending games and practices. I understand that violating this code will be subject to penalties as stated above and in the Code of Conduct Penalties & Violations document.
