

Damon McLaughlin Memorial Scholarship

This memorial scholarship is in honor of an amazing coach, mentor, friend and a man who just loved hockey. Damon McLaughlin was an intricate part of Richland Youth Hockey from being the president to being the most beloved coach. Damon worked with both the boys' and girls' programs, and coached many championships teams. Team unity and teamwork were very important to Damon and he worked hard to instill these values into his players at every level.

This scholarship of $500 will be awarded to one male graduating senior and one female graduating senior who played hockey for Richland Youth Hockey Association.
