

Happy Sunday everyone!

Here are your news and notes for week 2 of soccer. I am very excited about the group this year. The entire coaching staff is looking forward to working with them.

A few notes:

1. Monday after practice at 5:45 is our parent meeting at Shoreland in the STEM room. I hope to see you all there.
2. Games begin this week and will continue each week until June. Watch for specifics in the weekly breakdown
3. I am having schools email me about not having JV teams. Friday night's JV game at Elkhorn has been cancelled. Brookfield Academy has stated the same. Elkhorn only has 19 girls in the program. The Varsity game is 90% being moved to a 5:30 start instead of 6:30. I should know more by tomorrow's parent meeting. We are very blessed to have 30 girls in our program!
4. Wednesday is team picture day for JV and Varsity. The girls will need to make sure they have their game uniforms with them.

Here is a closer look at the week. Go Pacers!
