

Elite 50 Showcase

Presented by Connecticut Elite Basketball Program

October 1st, 2021 - Players from CT in the class of 2025 & 2026 got together under one roof at Newtown Youth Academy in Newtown, CT for the Elite 50 Showcase.

Here are your top performers:

Hasan Powell- Set shooter crafty has multiple moves to get to the basket. Score first guard. He is learning how to make those around him better.

Karell Brown- Shifty guard able to finish in the paint against bigger players. Karell makes the right play in transition. He excels in the open floor.

Zachary Young- Zachary has multiple ways to score. Has a good pull-up jump shot and makes the right play on offense. Has the ability to earn minutes at the junior varsity or even varsity level in high school this season.

Naiem Gill- Crafty guard who scores in a variety of ways. Makes good decision in the open court, consistently hit the open jump shot.

Ryan Tolliver- Big guard who plays at his own pace. He is very consistent as a spot up shooter and only looks to take good shots. Ryan is becoming more comfortable at attacking the basket.

Jace Ardito- Made shots off the dribble from 3pt range. He was very positive to teammate and lead his team both on defense as well as offensively. He ran the floor very well in transition and played through contact on numerous occasions. He was very focused the entire event/He would pass a head to start the break, creating stress for the defense.

Jordan Pierce- The best player in the gym. There wasn't anything he couldn't do on the floor. Punished smaller guards around the rim, consistently found people on the break, and made the right pass in the half-court. Jordan will have a breakout season as a freshman at Bunnell.

Alex Munoz- Very good high school and College prospect. He is a strong guard that defends and rebounds well. Very strong attacker and hunts the paint very well. Very unselfish player that finishes well in transition. Has varsity high school range now.

Shane Sebastian-Small- Shooter, with very good 3pt range/he has great vision in the half court and open floor setting. He had a great attitude and energy, which uplifted teammates throughout showcase. Defended on the ball very well at his position.

Anthony Williams- A G/F who can stretch the floor with his ability to make 3's at a high rate. Williams uses his body well to drive to the basket and finish around the hoop through contact.

Jackson Doyle- Terrific shooter, with very good range. He sees the floor well and gets his team set on offense. He can play the point as well as of the ball with a good handle and does not get flustered when pressured. He is a shifty guard with College potential.

George Ganim- Floor General, with the ability to find open players in half court as well as in transition. He competes every second he is on the floor. He has a very High IQ and has a very good attitude. He is a 3pt threat if left open.

Ryder Brunk- One of the top guards at showcase. He facilitated very well, had 3pt range and can also attack well. He had a great knack for the ball when rebounding. He plays through contact when attacking the basketball. He'll be a very good high school player as well as a college prospect down the road. Very High IQ. Is an all-around versatile guard.

Jayden Romero- Mr. Hustle” this player was nonstop on the defensive end, creating turnovers and deflections on the ball. He pushed the tempo very well on the break and finished in the paint. If left open, he was making the 3pt shot consistently. Very strong guard that did not mind contact.

Eli Ssenyange- This young man is coming into his own and is developing a perimeter game to match his new outside jump shot. Eli runs the floor well, finishes around the basket and knocks down shots at a consistent rate.
