

2020 FOOTBALL PLAYER DUES INFORMATION

All proceeds to go to the betterment of the Archer High School Football Program, and every player benefits.

DID YOU KNOW...

- Player Dues help us to complete capital improvements, like; an additional storage facility, weight room additions, covered grilling area for concession stand and future Touchdown Club deck.
- Player Dues pay for the weight room equipment, not to mention blocking sleds, and other essentials that the team needs to physically prepare and compete in Georgia.
- Player Dues cover the cost of uniforms, pads and helmets for all players. This is NOT funded by the High School, Gwinnett County School System or the State of Georgia.
- Player Dues provide for the video equipment and video analysis software, HUDL, for breaking down Archer and competitor's game video, including the creation and distribution of college recruiting highlights.
- Player Dues cover the purchase and maintenance of the necessary communication equipment that the coaches use at game time. We are in need of a sand pit this year.
- Player Dues pay for all of the Game Day equipment (carts, training/medical supplies, etc.)
- Player Dues pay for mower Maintenance and diesel fuel to mow fields.
- Player Dues pay for all pre-game and any post-game meals provided to players, along with special meals provided throughout the season.
- Player Dues provide coaching supplements for 8 coaches. We currently have 18 coaches. The county provides supplements for 10 coaches. Archer Touchdown Club is responsible for the balance of coaches' salaries.
- Player Dues pay for 7 on 7 entry fees each summer as well as other summer training expenses. Most tournaments are $1,000 per team for entry fees.
- Archer Football does not receive any money from the ticket gate. Those funds are collected by the school and used by the athletic department for all Archer High School sports programs.
- Players MUST do their part in order to get awards at the awards ceremony.
- Player Dues cover the Gwinnett County Touchdown Club All-Star game only.
