

2026 CHIPOTLE ALL-AMERICAN GAME

TEAM BLUE VS. TEAM WHITE | USA HOCKEY ARENA | PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN | JANUARY 15, 2026

2026 CHIPOTLE ALL-AMERICAN GAME

The 2026 Chipotle All-American Game is set for this evening at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth, Michigan. Puck drop is scheduled for 7 p.m. ET, and the game will broadcast live on NHL Network. USA Hockey Arena will host 42 players hopeful to hear their names called at the NHL Draft in June as over 150 scouts from 27 different NHL teams in attendance look on. Tonight's game serves as an important benchmark for evaluators, providing the opportunity to see how players perform against the best competition in their age group. In total, 353 NHL Draft selections, including 74 first-round picks, have participated in the since the game's debut in 2012. The contest features the top NHL draft-eligible players from the U.S. Under-18 National Team of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, and other teams in the United States Hockey League, the nation's only Tier 1 junior hockey league. The players will be split into two teams from among those selected for the competition.

TEAM BLUE VS. TEAM WHITE • JANUARY 15, 2026

ADDITIONAL NOTES

USA HOCKEY OFFICIALS

The Chipotle All-American Game is a feature event for linesmen and referees, highlighting some of the brightest young talent in USA Hockey's Officiating Development Program:

REFEREE - KYLE MCCAULEY

McCauley has been officiating since he was 14-years-old and joined the USA Hockey Advanced Officiating Development Program in 2020, the same year he began working in the NA3HL. In 2021, he officiated the Fraser Cup Championship (NA3HL) and began working in the NAHL. McCauley, who worked the 2023 NAHL Prospects Challenge and 2024 Robertson Cup Finals (NAHL), earned a spot as an official in the USHL in 2023-24 and work the league's Clark Cup Finals in 2025. This season, he has also worked a number of games in the ECHL.

REFEREE - CAM FRASER

Fraser has been officiating games for 16 years, beginning as a 12-year-old in Monument, Colo. A USA Hockey Officiating Development Camp attendee and a member of USA Hockey's Advanced Officiating Development Program, Fraser worked the 2019 Chipotle-USA Hockey Youth National Championships before becoming an NA3HL referee in 2020. In 2021, he advanced to the NAHL, and in 2023, he became a full-time USHL referee. This season, he has also served as an official in the ECHL. His experience includes officiating the 2021 and 2023 Fraser Cup Championship (NA3HL), the 2023 NAHL Prospects Challenge, the 2023 Robertson Cup Finals (NAHL), the 2025 Frosty Cup (USHL), and the 2025 Clark Cup Finals (USHL).

LINESMAN - CRAIG FORD

Ford's officiating career began in 2020 after playing Division II ACHA hockey at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. In 2021, he began working in the NA3HL and joined USA Hockey's Advanced Officiating Development Program a year later while also working in the NAHL. Ford began working USHL games in 2023, and in the 2024-25 season he started officiating games at the ECHL and AHL levels. His experience includes working the 2022 ACHA Division II National Championship, the 2024 ACHA Division I National Championship, the 2023 and 2024 Fraser Cup Championship (NA3HL), the 2024 Robertson Cup Finals (NAHL), the 2025 Clark Cup Finals (USHL), the 2025 Kelly Cup Playoffs (ECHL), and the 2025 Calder Cup Playoffs (AHL).

LINESMAN - NICK KLISHKO

Klishko began officiating after concluding his playing career in the Southern Professional Hockey League in 2023. During the 2023-24 season, Klishko joined USA Hockey's Advanced Officiating Development Program and began work in the NAHL. The following season, he officiated in the USHL and in 2025, he became a full-time ECHL official. His experience includes the 2024 Robertson Cup Finals (NAHL), the 2025 Clark Cup Finals (USHL), the 2025 Frosty Cup (USHL), and the 2025 NHL Prospects Games.

GUEST COACHES: PAT MAROON, DEREK PLANTE

Pat Maroon, a 14-year NHL veteran, is currently in his first season as an assistant coach of the USHL's Muskegon Lumberjacks. A three-time Stanley Cup champion, Maroon played 846 regular-season games during his NHL career for eight different teams before retiring at the conclusion of the 2024-25 season. He represented the U.S. on the international stage at the 2016 IIHF Men's World Championship. Maroon will serve as the honorary coach of Team Blue at the Chipotle All-American Game

Derek Plante, who played eight seasons (1993-01) in the NHL, primarily with the Buffalo Sabres, is currently in his first season as a pro scout for the Ottawa Senators. Prior to joining the Senators, Plante spent three seasons (2022-25) as an assistant coach with the Chicago Blackhawks. His coaching background also includes two stints with his alma mater, the University of Minnesota Duluth, as an assistant (2009-15) and associate head coach (2020-22) coach for the men's ice hockey team. He also served as a development coach for the Blackhawks in a previous tenure with the team from 2015-20. In addition to his NHL playing experience, Plante played professionally overseas for seven seasons (2001-08), and represented the U.S. internationally at six IIHF Men's World Championships (1992, 1993, 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002), and one IIHF World Junior Championship (1991). Plante will serve as Team White's honorary coach at the 2026 Chipotle All-American Game.

Both guest coaches have a son playing in tonight's contest: Victor Plante on Team Blue, and Anthony Thomas-Maroon on Team White.

AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT TIES

USA HOCKEY'S DEVELOPMENT MODEL

The American Development Model, now in its 16th season, is USA Hockey's nationwide player development program for youth hockey associations. It's based on age-appropriate, age-specific competition and training for boys and girls, beginning with their first steps onto the ice and carrying them through age 18 and beyond. The ADM places a heightened emphasis on skill development and long-term athlete development principles, providing a blueprint for the best possible youth hockey experience.
