7. NOTES

- The Chef-de-Mission's role is to be the team's representative – appointed by and answerable to Baseball PEI – to Baseball Canada, the Baseball Canada representative at the National Championship, and the Championship Host Committee at a National Championship.
 - o Aspects of this role include:
 - Meet with the team two weeks prior to the National Championship to introduce yourself and review all Baseball PEI rules for teams at National Championships
 - Ensure a Provincial Team Code of Conduct is signed by all players, parents, coaches and managers and returned to Baseball PEI prior to the National Championship
 - Travel with the team (unless the National Championship is driving distance)
 - Represent the team at the National Championship Pre-Tournament Meeting
 - Attend each of the team's games at the National Championship
 - Along with one member of the coaching staff, inspect all of the players' rooms prior to players entering them, and inspect all of the players' rooms after the players leave them at the end of the National Championship
 - Along with one member of the coaching staff, do a room check of each room at a pre-determined time each night while at the National Championship
 - If one/more players are suspected of breaking the Code of Conduct, conduct an investigation immediately. If one/more players are found to have broken the Code of Conduct, suspend them immediately and contact the Executive Director and President of Baseball PEI immediately
 - Within one – two weeks upon the conclusion of the National Championship, submit a report to the Board of Directors of Baseball PEI
- The Chef-de-Mission will have all of his/her transportation covered (if driving, gas will be reimbursed upon the submission of receipts. If flying, his/her flight will be covered), his/her hotel room covered, and be given a per diem of up to $45 per day for food, upon the submission of receipts.
