 - Official Online rosters sent to the tournament director.
 - Tournament eligibility rules, tournament rules, tournament tiebreaker rules, refund policy.
 - Hotel Information, schedules and standings
- Advertised and marketed in our National Office monthly newsletter and tournament newsletters.
- Risk free to the players and tournament director with NABA Liability Insurance
- Discounted Wilson A1000-NABA Baseballs. Equivalent to the A1010 HS1
- Discounted custom NABA awards available
- Discounted NABA t-shirts available
- NABA World Series berths for participants including those who are not affiliated with NABA.
- An NABA World Series $250 Dollar Certificate for the winning team in each division.

How to get started

- Submit a tournament agreement/request to host an NABA tournament to the National Office.
- You can mail or fax the request.
- All requests must be made to the NABA National Office at least 60 days in advance of the tournament.
- Please submit two or three choices for the dates you would like to host a tournament.
 - No Regional Tournament can be hosted on the same dates as an NABA National Tournament or World Series Tournament unless the NABA National Office approves the request.
- All requests are looked at and determined yearly. Once a request has been granted, priority will be given to those who have hosted an NABA Tournament before.

OBLIGATIONS FOR HOSTING AN NABA TOURNAMENT

- NABA eligibility rules, tournament rules, and tiebreaker rules will be used as the basic rules.
- All teams must complete a team roster and player liability waiver online.
- All team names, divisions, managers' names, email, and cell phone numbers will be sent to NABA.
- The NABA will enter all teams, and schedules online. The results, including scores of all games, will be entered on the tournament website by NABA.
- Tournament Director must complete:
 - A tournament agreement/request host information sheet
 - NABA liability insurance certificate for each field used
 - Must sign and send to NABA the obligations for hosting an NABA tournament agreement.
 - Must complete a tournament post-event checklist.
- Agree to forward to the NABA National Office a $140 per team liability insurance, and $160 per team sanctioning fee that plays in the tournament. Non-NABA Leagues who run an NABA-sanctioned tournament agree to forward a $500.00 per team sanctioning fee that plays in the tournament. Penalty will apply if not postmarked within 72 hours. If material and fees are not postmarked within 72 hours a $500 fine will be added.
- Agree to utilize the NABA Wilson A1000-NABA Baseball at a reduced fee of $51.95 per dozen.
- Keep on file and submit a liability insurance certificate to each field location.
- Any special rules for the tournament need to be in writing and discussed with the NABA National Office.
- NABA reserves the right to cancel the sanctioning of any event at any time.

I have read and agree to meet all obligations listed above for hosting an NABA tournament. We fully understand that we are to set the highest standards in hosting the events. If all forms and fees are not forwarded to the National Office in the time allowed, all berths and certificates will be forfeited.
