Interview Of The Week...

TIGER WOODS-YOUNGEST MASTERS CHAMPION

We caught up with Tiger at Kentucky Fried Chicken in Long Branch.....

YMSL- How did a young African-American like yourself get into golf at such a young age?
TW- It all started when I was eight and I used to hang out with Michael Salomon. We used to play miniature golf and i got pretty good from that.

YMSL- How was Salomon at Golf?

TW- He wasn't very good . He was just interested in stealing as many balls as possible and then selling it back to the place.

YMSL- How do you feel about the comments Fuzzy Zoeller made about you eating Fried Chicken and collared greens?

TW- It doesn't bother me at all. For the first 15 years of my life i thought my name was "Shoof the husho" cause that's all I heard when i walked into a store.

YMSL- Is there anybody in the YMSL who is good in golf?

TW- Well, Henry Shalam is pretty good and Picciotto's not bad. But my favorite guy is Hoss. He came up to me one day and asked me if I could be his hitting coach. I told him I'm a golfer. He said "what's the difference, you still have to swing."

YMSL- What's been the hardest part of being famous?

TW- Its' handling all the gee's, no question about it. Now I now what Salomon was talking about, even though all his stories are B.S. anyway.

HOWARD COSELL'S GAME OF THE WEEK:

The 4-0 Cracker Jacks matched up with the 3-1 Force in what turned out to be a wild double-header with a combined total of 45 runs, 54 hits, and a record 11 homeruns! But Cracker Jacks got the better of The Force defeating them in both games by one run, 12-11 and 11-10. David Gindi hit 3 homeruns and Billy Beda connected with 2 homeruns. Henry Shalam and Zak Gindi were ejected by the umpires during a wild 5th inning in the first game with both benches clearing. Albert Levy hit 5 for 6 as well Soloman. Cracker Jacks walked for an incredible total of 11 times.
