

IRONMAN Arbitration Panel

 A head-and-shoulders portrait of Richard H. McLaren, a middle-aged man with glasses, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and red tie.	Richard H. McLaren, O.C., LL.B., LL.M., C.Arb. Chief Arbitrator Mr. McLaren serves as the Chief Arbitrator for IRONMAN. He is a commercial lawyer, arbitrator, mediator, and professor of law with an extraordinary global reputation in sport. He is a longstanding member of the International Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) and has been a member of the ad Hoc Divisions of the CAS at five Olympic Games. His positions include a seat on the Strauss Institute, Council of Distinguished Advisors (Pepperdine University), Visiting Fellow, Faculty of Law, Melbourne University, and Chair Emeritus of the Sports Law Institute at Marquette University. Mr. McLaren is President of the Basketball Arbitral Tribunal in Geneva Switzerland and is an elected judge to the FIA International Court of Appeal. He is an Anti-Corruption Hearing Officer for the Uniform Tennis Anti-Corruption Program, Chair of the Anti-Doping Tribunal of the International Cricket Council, and Chair of the Doping Control Board for the Caribbean Cricket Council. Mr. McLaren also acts as the Chief Arbitrator for the Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) in respect to anti-doping violations and other disputes under the UFC Anti-Doping Policy and UFC Arbitration Rules. He served as the only non-American advisor to Senator Mitchell in the Major League Baseball Anti-Doping Drug Inquiry. In December, 2014, Mr. McLaren was appointed by WADA to a three person Independent Commission to investigate international doping issues in the sport of athletics (IAAF), and was subsequently appointed as the Independent Person who led a second Commission concerning the WADA Investigation of Sochi Allegations arising from the previous Independent Commission. In December, 2015, Mr. McLaren was appointed as an Officer of the Order of Canada.
 A head-and-shoulders portrait of Henri Alvarez, a middle-aged man with a beard and mustache, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and patterned tie.	Henri Alvarez Henri Alvarez is a member of Fasken Martineau's International Arbitration Practice Group. With over 30 years of experience, Henri has served as sole arbitrator, party-appointed arbitrator and Chairman under the auspices of several international arbitral institutions in cases involving investments, licensing, construction, energy, and commercial disputes. He regularly conducts arbitrations in English, Spanish and French. As a member of the Court of Arbitration for Sport, Henri has served on several panels in anti-doping and eligibility cases. In 2010, he served on the ad hoc Panel of Arbitrators at the Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver. Henri is a council member of the HKIAC, a member of the SIAC Users Council and sits on the Board of Directors of the AAA. He is an Adjunct Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of British Columbia. Henri was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2008 and was called to the British Columbia Bar in 1981.

Mark Baker

Mark Baker is Global Co-Head of International Arbitration and a member of the Norton Rose Fulbright Global Supervisory Board. He practices in the areas of complex commercial arbitration, business litigation, sports law, and alternative dispute resolution (ADR). He has chaired, on average, eight international arbitration cases each year since 1998. Mark received the 2015 Client Choice Award, Texas, Arbitration & ADR by Globe Business Publishing, and was selected as 2014 Lawyer of the Year - Houston International Arbitration: Commercial by The Best Lawyers in America. Mark is recognized as one of the “100 Most Influential Lawyers in America” by National Law Journal. He is internationally ranked for his arbitration work by Chambers Global, Chambers USA, Chambers Latin America, Global Counsel, LawDragon, Legal 500, The International Who’s Who of Commercial Arbitration, The International Who’s Who of Business Lawyers, Who’s Who of Oil & Gas Lawyers, and The Best Lawyers in America. More information, please visit: www.nortonrosefulbright.com

The Honourable Michael Beloff, QC

Michael Beloff QC has been a member of the Court of Arbitration for Sport for 20 years and has arbitrated at 4 summer Olympics. He is Chairman of the IAAF Ethics Board, Chairman of the ICC Code of Conduct Commission, a Member of the FIA International Appeal Tribunal, and a Steward of the Royal Automobile Club. He is a former President of Trinity College, Oxford and Senior Ordinary Appeal Judge of Jersey and Guernsey. He is the editor of Sweet and Maxwells International Sports Law Review and co-author of Sports Law. For more information, please visit: http://www.blackstonechambers.com/people/barristers/michael_beloff_qc.html

Lars Halgreen

Lars Halgreen is a Danish lawyer and a partner at Magnusson law firm in Copenhagen. He holds a master degree in law from Duke University from 1992 and Ph.D from Aarhus University from 2004. He has been one of only a few appointed arbitrators at the Court at Arbitration for Sport (CAS) from the Nordic countries and has arbitrated on nearly 75 cases since 2004. Apart from his extensive experience at CAS, Mr. Halgreen has also been involved in numerous sports related cases in Denmark both as an arbitrator and as general counsel. In 2004 he published a comprehensive text book on European and US sport Law (European Sports Law – A Comparative Analysis of the European and American Model of Sport). Mr. Halgreen has also published the leading text book on sports law in Denmark. He serves as an associated professor in International Sports Law at the Copenhagen University and is a frequent speaker at sports law conferences. For more information, please visit: www.magnussonlaw.com

(The Hon) Dr. Tricia Kavanagh

The Honourable Dr. Tricia Kavanagh Dip Ed LLB (Hons) PhD (Law): Sydney, Australia, Appointed Justice of the Industrial Court of New South Wales (NSW), Deputy President of the Industrial Relations Commission of NSW, Deputy Chair of the NSW Medical Tribunal, and Member of the Racing Tribunal of NSW. Arbitrator, International Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS/TAS), Arbitrator Sydney 2000 Olympics. As Barrister & Arbitrator, specialises in labour law, contracts, employment & doping.

Jennifer Kirby

Jennifer Kirby is an internationally recognized arbitration expert, who sits as arbitrator in a wide variety of commercial and sports arbitration matters. Jennifer began her career with a multinational firm as a New York litigator, representing clients in both international arbitrations and complex commercial litigations, with a particular focus on securities, insurance, mergers and acquisitions and white-collar criminal defense. From there, Jennifer went to the ICC International Court of Arbitration, where she served as both Counsel and Deputy Secretary General before leaving to join a multinational law firm as a partner in their arbitration group. In 2010, Jennifer founded her own arbitration practice, Kirby, in Paris. Jennifer has been recognized by Chambers Global as “a true expert in ICC-related disputes” and by The Who’s Who of International Arbitration as a “very sharp” global player in the field.

For more information, please visit: www.kirbyarbitration.com

Markus Manninen

Mr. Markus Manninen possesses extensive experience in dispute resolution. He has litigated and arbitrated a number of varying disputes relating to, for example, M&A transactions, international trade, insurance contracts and lease agreements. He regularly represents Finnish and foreign corporations in both domestic and international ad hoc arbitrations, as well as in arbitrations administered by various institutional rules (i.a. ICC, SCAI, SIAC and FAI). In addition, he frequently serves as a sole or party-nominated arbitrator in both ad hoc and administered arbitration proceedings. He is a member of the CAS as well as IBU's Anti-Doping Hearing Panel and Court of Arbitration. He has been a member of FINADA's Supervisory Group since 2009 and was promoted to its chairman in 2015. He also serves as a vice-chairman of the Disciplinary Board of the Finnish Bar Association. He is ranked in the Best Lawyers® list for Finland (Arbitration and Mediation, Litigation and Sports Law).

Dr. Dirk-Reiner Martens

Dr. Dirk-Reiner Martens is a commercial lawyer with extraordinary expertise in commercial and sports arbitration. He has been a member of the International Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) since 1986 and has been member of the ad Hoc Divisions of the CAS at four Olympic Games. Since 2000 he has acted in more than 250 arbitration proceedings relating to commercial law or sports law, either as a party-appointed arbitrator, president of the tribunal or party representative. He established the Basketball Arbitral Tribunal (BAT) in 2007 and the Court of Innovative Arbitration (COIA) in 2015. Both tribunals are managed by his law firm Martens Rechtsanwälte. The BAT has dealt with more than 790 since its setup. In addition to the CAS, Dr Martens is listed as an arbitrator at the AAA, JAMS, CRCIA (Cairo, Egypt), FIA (Formula 1) and ICDR. For more information, please visit: <http://martens-lawyers.com/en/law-firm-team/>

Mark Muedeking

Mark Muedeking is a partner in the global law firm DLA Piper. Prior to joining the firm, Mark was an attorney for the United States Department of Justice. Mark was the Managing Director and General Counsel of the United States Olympic Committee. He is an arbitrator for the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) and the American Arbitration Association (AAA); he has served on and advised numerous panels and commissions related to disputes arising in sport. He was an investigator and advisor to Senator George Mitchell in the preparation and publication of the Report to the Commissioner of Baseball Regarding the Illegal Use of Steroids and Other Performance Enhancing Substances by Players in Major League Baseball. The respected international research firm Chambers & Partners recognized Mark in Chambers USA as being "highly regarded" and he has been recommended in the respected legal directory The Legal 500 United States.

David W. Rivkin

David W. Rivkin is Co-Chair of the International Dispute Resolution Group of Debevoise & Plimpton and President of the International Bar Association (IBA). A litigation partner in the firm's New York and London offices, Mr. Rivkin has broad experience in the areas of international litigation and arbitration and is consistently ranked as one of the top international dispute resolution practitioners in the world by Chambers Global and other publications. Mr. Rivkin has handled international arbitrations throughout the world and before virtually every major arbitration institution and is a member of many arbitration panels, including the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) and FIA (Formula One) court. Mr. Rivkin served as a member of the CAS Ad Hoc Divisions at the 2002, 2004 and 2008 Olympics, and has heard some of CAS's most important cases, including Oscar Pistorius, Floyd Landis, Tyler Hamilton and Richard Gasquet. For more information, please visit: <http://www.debevoise.com/davidrivkin?tab=Biography>

Carol Roberts

Carol Roberts has over 20 years of experience as a decision maker in a variety of areas including human rights, property assessment, employment and personal injury. Prior to entering the adjudicative field, she was Constitutional Counsel for the Government of the Northwest Territories and was a lawyer in private practise. Ms. Roberts advises a variety of agencies on governance and conflict of interest issues and has conducted many harassment investigations for government agencies. Ms. Roberts has been a member of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada for over 10 years as well as a member of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS). She was on the ad hoc Division of CAS at the 2016 Olympics in Rio. She is also a member of the International Floorball Federation's Ethics Commission.

Jean-Philippe Rochat

Jean-Philippe Rochat is an attorney and partner with Kellerhals Carrard, Lausanne, Switzerland specialising in: commercial, corporate, and contract law; sports law; and international arbitration, acting as arbitrator in commercial, trade, and sport cases. He received his law degree at the University of Lausanne and is a member of the Geneva Bar and Vaud Bar. Mr. Rochat served as the Secretary General of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) from 1994 to 1999. Mr. Rochat's arbitration experience as Chairman, sole arbitrator, and party appointed arbitrator includes ICC, Swiss Rules, Uncitral, CAS, and other ad hoc arbitrations. Languages include French, English, Italian, and German.

Hans Nater

Hans Nater is senior partner with Nater Dallafior Rechtsanwälte AG, Zurich. He graduated from the University of Zurich and received his LLM from Harvard Law School. Hans Nater is a litigation and arbitration specialist. He is on the list of Swiss ICC Arbitrators and served as an arbitrator of the Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts in Switzerland (CRT). Since his appointment to the CAS in the 1980ies he has been appointed as an arbitrator at the Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS), he acted as Chairman or co-arbitrator in more than 200 sports arbitration and mediation cases. He has served as a member of the CAS ad hoc Division at the 2002, 2004 and 2006 Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Athens and Torino respectively. Hans Nater speaks German, French, English and Italian.