Hi Michael and Rosie: Thanks for your combined efforts to make "Flurry Fest" a successful event. We were pleased with the turnout for the first year attempt.

Sorry I didn't get this information to you any sooner but the good news is that we've been quite busy! Following are the food items purchased by Greenwood's and used for the event:

2-Meat & Cheese Nibbler Trays @ $49.99 each = $99.98
1-Medium Fruit Tray @ $34.99	34.99
1 Lrg. Bag Tortilla Chips	4.69
2-Salsa (Pint containers)	4.59
2-Layered Mexican Dip @ $7.99 each	15.98
1 Sundried Tomato Hummus (32 oz.)	5.99
Crackers (Assorted Flavors)	7.99
4 Bags-Pretzel Chips @ $2.00 each	8.00
Snowflake Peppermint Chocolate Pretzels	6.99
Subtotal	$189.20
Sales Tax	11.35
Total	$200.55

Just so you are aware, Greenwood's provided the non-alcoholic beverages, ice, plates, napkins, wine cups, and utensils. I also purchased some additional quantities that were not used but I did not include those expenses in the amounts listed above. Greenwood's can use the leftovers so we don't expect BBSC or the ISC to share those expenses.

As Rosie suggested earlier, it might be easiest for the Intermountain Ski Council to make a check to Greenwood's for $100.00 to split the expenses above since BBSC already provided $100 worth of beer and wine. Does that work for you Michael? I have all the receipts if anyone needs copies. Let me know if you have questions. Happy Thanksgiving and....Think Snow!!!

Thank you,

Carrie
