STORYLINES

Setting Sail Into Spring	The Spring Schedule begins at home with a Gasparilla Night matchup. The Sun embrace tradition with a silver warm-up jerseys containing a pirate-y logo that combines a Sun with crossed swords. Fans can also take home Gasparilla-themed Sun merch from the match.
A Familiar Start This Spring	After a championship run last season, the Sun return from this year's winter break to start their Spring schedule at the opposite end of the standings. The Sun have been in a similar spot before. Tampa Bay is ready to rise from last place on the leaderboard and into playoff contention.
International Talent	Four of the Sun's five goalkeepers have represented their countries at the national team level; notable as global attention builds toward the Olympics: Austria – Bella Kresche Jamaica – Sydney Schneider Scotland – Braelynn Galt (under-19 team) USA – Liz Beardsley (under-23 team)
New Faces, Immediate Impact	The Sun made key additions to their roster over winter break. • Taylor Chism joins after her final season at Auburn University. • Maddie Porkorny, on loan from NWSL's Racing Louisville FC, made HB Køge history by scoring the club's first-ever Champions League goal. • Liz Beardsley, on loan from NWSL's Houston Dash, is a Tampa Bay Area native who grew up in Lakeland, 40 minutes east of Downtown Tampa.
More Than a Match Day	Eight of 14 Spring matches will be played at home, along the Hillsborough River at Suncoast Credit Union Field. To add to the energy, the Sun have theme nights with special guests, celebrations, and giveaways planned for several upcoming matches.

TAMPA BAY SUN FC PLAYER BIOS

#1 Sydney Schneider | Position: GK | Hometown: South Brunswick, New Jersey

About Sydney: Schneider was a First-Team All-Colonial Athletic Association selection during her college career in the net with UNC Wilmington. As she sharpened her skills, she was named the first-ever recipient of the CAA Goalkeeper of the Year award and became the starting goalkeeper for Jamaica in the FIFA Women's World Cup.

#3 Gabby Provenzano | Position: M | Hometown: Sergeantsville, NJ

About Gabby: As captain of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights in 2021, Gabby led her team to the first-ever Big Ten championship for Rutgers in any sport since the university joined the conference in 2014. Honored as Big Ten Defender of the Year, she was a semifinalist for the national MAC Hermann Trophy. As a professional, Gabby headed west to Portland, Oregon to join their National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) team in 2022. Later that year, Gabby was able to celebrate as a member of the 2022 NWSL Champion Portland Thorns FC team.

#4 Vivianne Bessette | Position: D | Hometown: Quebec, Canada

About Vivianne: Bessette participated in the 2023 U20 World Cup in Costa Rica with the Canadian U20 National Team. Vivianne was a University of South Florida standout defender. Named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Region Third Team earned CSC (College Sports Communicators) Academic All-District honors, while landing on the AAC All-Conference Second Team. Bessette was also ranked No. 62 on TopDrawerSoccer Top-100 Players preseason list. In her free time, Bessette enjoys going to the beach and baking. Bessette speaks three languages, and her favorite holiday is Christmas.

#5 Jordyn Listro | Position: M | Hometown: Toronto, Canada

About Jordyn: Listro is a professional soccer veteran, having served on the Canadian national team and played for NWSL clubs Orlando Pride, North Carolina Courage, and FC Kansas City. She also boasted record-breaking career appearance records at the University of South Florida. Her relentless work ethic and midfield mastery promise to ignite the Sun's offense. When she's not playing soccer, Listro can be found working out, shopping, listening to music, taking pictures, or hanging out with friends and family. Some fun facts about Listro are that she used to play hockey, her husband is a professional golfer, and she's a huge coffee lover.
