JUMPSTART PLAY TO LEAD — SASKATOON SUMMIT:

Empower the Future with Play to Lead!

At Jumpstart, we know that gender equity builds better sport. We also know that girls' participation in sports now sets them up for success later in life. That's why Jumpstart created Play to Lead: a leadership program for girls - and their support systems - in sport.

What is Play to Lead?

Play to Lead is an empowering leadership program tailored for girls aged 13-17, helping them unlock their full potential as leaders both in sports and beyond.

Program Highlights:

- Four-Day In-Person Summit: Kick off your journey by joining fellow athletes and coaches for an immersive summit packed with hands-on workshops, dynamic activities, and experiential learning designed to boost your leadership skills in real-world settings.
- Mentorship Opportunities: Connect and be inspired by trailblazing women from Canada's sport landscape - including athletes, coaches, journalists, and more.
- Continued Learning: After the summit, keep the momentum going with a series of online sessions and community-based events.
- Leadership Project: Put your skills into action by developing and delivering a leadership project within your community.

Don't miss this incredible opportunity to grow, lead, and make a difference. There is no cost to participate in the program; Transportation to and from the summit, overnight accommodations, food, and all activities are covered by Jumpstart.
