Next Level Hockey is providing an off-season, high performance ice hockey clinic. The 10-session clinic offers young athletes the opportunity to learn and strengthen their skills, develop their individual technique, and have fun working as a team. Participants will be supported by a highly experienced group of coaches, led by Tim Horst, and will be motivated to reach their highest potential as skaters!

We are dedicated to providing hockey players with:

- Power Skating — edge work and stride work
- Stick Skills — stick handling, passing, receiving, puck protection
- Shooting — head-up wrist and snap shot
- Games — fun games that put skills to work, 3 v 3 tournament, capture the flag, soccer, and more!

MEET THE COACHES:

TIM HORST has playing experience in the USHL and Division 1 College Hockey at UNH, as well as 12 years of extensive coaching background which includes College: Division 1 Women's at RPI and Division 3 Men's at Skidmore, Prep and High School, Junior Hockey, and 6 years of USA Hockey National Development Camp.
