

2019-20 Player/Parent/Coach Code of Conduct Agreement

This player/parent code of conduct is not intended to be an all-inclusive list of rules concerning player/parent/coaches behavior. All players, parents and coaches are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectable to others.

As Warriors, we will strive for excellence.

Player Conduct:

1. I will strive to perform each aspect of the game to the highest level of my ability and with the highest level of integrity.
2. I will support my team and teammates at all times.
3. I will respect all coaches, opponents', and referees at all times.
4. I will be responsible for my behavior on and off the court. I will remember all of my actions can either affect my team positively or negatively.
5. Teamwork is not a preference, it is a requirement – Encourage one another.
6. Missing or late arrivals to practice/games will not be tolerated.
 - I will arrive to practice/games on time/early, and be ready to start.
 - It is my responsibility to inform my coaches if I will be late or absent.
Understanding that this will affect playing time
7. I will practice good sportsmanship at all times, to win without boasting, to lose without excuse and never quit.
8. I understand that violence/abuse of any nature will not be tolerated at any time.
9. I understand that playing time is earned in practice, through skill set, basketball IQ, work ethic, and Code of Conduct agreement. No one is guaranteed to play.

Parent Conduct:

1. I will understand the purpose of our program is to help our boys become men of empathy and integrity who will lead, be responsible, and change the world for good.
2. I will agree to cheer, let the coaches coach, the referees ref and the players play.
3. I will respect coaching decisions regarding playing time, position, and placement.
4. I will not approach coaches before, during, or after games. If there is a need to meet, I will do the following:
 - First, to promote self-advocacy, I will encourage my player to speak with the coaching staff,
 - I will surprise my player at practice to get a better understanding of skill, urgency, and dedication.
 - The last step would be to schedule a meeting with the coaching staff. A meeting must be scheduled, so concerns can be addressed in an atmosphere conducive to problem solving. Playing time or other student-athletes will not be open for discussion.
 - I will not approach coaches before, during or after a game concerning playing time.

5. I will be a positive role model.
6. I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participants for making a mistake or losing a competition.
7. I understand in order for my player to be a member of the NAHS basketball team, all fees must be paid. *
8. I will support the North Atlanta Warriors basketball team and the coaches.
9. I will arrive at a timely manner to pick my child up from practices and games.

Coaches Conduct:

1. I will strive to perform my duty to the highest level possible, and be a role model for all student athletes.
2. Coaches will provide encouragement and will be constructive with all criticism.
3. I will provide an atmosphere of teamwork and collaboration among players, parents, and other coaches.
4. There will be a coach at the gym at least 30 minutes prior to all practices.
5. Coaches give playing time based on skill, level, practice time, performance, work ethic, sportsmanship, and the code of conduct agreement.
6. Coaches will stay with a player on all away games until a parent has picked their student up.

Discipline Policy/Consequences:

Each player and parent is advised of the following discipline policy and consequences for any and all inappropriate conduct.

1. Any and all disciplinary action shall be reviewed by the coaching staff.
2. Any and all actions may include but are not limited to the following repercussions (some violations can go straight to b or c):
 - a. Verbal Warning
 - b. Suspension
 - c. Dismissal from the program*
3. Some violations may go straight to b or c, any/all violations can affect playing time.

*If your player is dismissed/withdrawn from the program, parents will not receive a refund of any sort.

By signing this form, the player and parent both have read and understand the conduct expected for the 2017-2018 season. Both provide their consent that a player who violates the Code of Conduct may be subject to disciplinary action by their coaching staff which may affect playing time.
