Application and Documentation

Please provide the following financial documents:

1. A copy of the most recent W-2 for both parents
2. A copy of the most recent pay stub for both parents
3. A copy of the 2024 tax return for both parents, or a copy of any extension applications submitted with same.

On a separate page, please also provide any information that the Houston Junior Aeros (the "Aeros") Board of Directors (the "Board") would or may find relevant to form a decision, such as: (i) additional details related to financial need, (ii) academic performance, (iii) school activity involvement, (iv) community and/or other volunteer involvement, etc. If deemed appropriate and necessary upon review of this application, the Board may request further information, including information related to alternate sources of income.

Availability

Financial assistance is available only for players registered with and committed to the Junior Aeros. Only partial awards are available (i.e., awards equal to full season fees are NOT available); further, assistance is intended for members facing financial hardship or a compelling current event that resulted in the need for financial aid. All awards will be applied directly to the player's Junior Aeros season fees and are not redeemable for cash. All award decisions are at the discretion of the Board.

Process

Per DSTHL rules, the player must have committed to and paid the commitment fee for the 2025-26 Houston Junior Aeros team prior to applying for financial assistance. This application must be completed and submitted by mail or email to the Board at president@houstonjunioraeros.com. No Financial Assistance application will be accepted or considered prior to the completion of the Aeros' 2025-26 tryouts. The Board will review the application and applicants will subsequently be notified as soon as possible upon the Board's

Confidentiality

The Board will hold all Application information and documents in strict confidence.
