Indiana Gold Freestyle- Indiana Gold Freestyle performed well after a long two days of Greco beforehand. The team started off winning their first two duals over Minnesota Red and Idaho, before falling to Iowa in their pool finals 37-36. The team defeated Michigan Blue in the true second match to advance to the Gold Pool. Indiana would fall short in multiple duals in the Gold Pool before earning 7th place with an exciting 37-36 win over Oklahoma Blue to end the weekend. The team was led by Kameron Hazelett (8-0), Caesar Salas (8-0) and Traevon Ducking (6-1).

Indiana Blue Freestyle- Indiana Blue Freestyle would get off to a slow start in the tournament, falling to Florida and Colorado in the opening rounds. The team would be placed in the Purple Pool, running off four consecutive wins, defeating South Carolina, North Carolina, Utah Black, and South Dakota to win the Purple Pool. The team was led by Austin Oakley (6-0) and a group of wrestlers finishing with 5-1 records (Schoeff, Baumann, Litchfield, and Williams)

Indiana Greco- Indiana started the week off competing in Greco, winning their first two duals over New Jersey and Iowa, before falling short in their pool final to Pennsylvania. This would qualify the team for the Gold Pool, where they would pick up a victory over Washington before falling to Wisconsin and California. Indiana would finish the tournament with a loss to Minnesota Blue, ending the tournament with a 6th place finish.

The team was led by Peyton Hornsby (5-1), Kameron Hazelett (6-1) and Camden Williams (6-1)
