

Steve Mormando

A three-time U.S. Olympian in men's saber, Steve competed at the 1984, 1988 and 1992 Olympic Games. The 1987 National Champion also holds four medals from the Pan American Games, winning silver in team saber in 1983, 1987 and 1991 as well as the men's individual saber title in 1991.

After graduating from Rutgers University in 1980, he represented the United States at four Senior World Championships (1985, 1987, 1989 and 1991).

Steve has coached for more than 38 years at New York University.

- Member: 1984, 1988, 1992 U.S. Olympic Teams
- 1984 – 6th Team, 11th Individual
- 1988 – 7th Team, 16th Individual
- Member: 1983, 1987, 1991 Pan American Team
- 1991 Individual Pan Am Champion
- 2nd Place Team – 1983, 1987, 1991
- 1987 U.S. National Champion
- 12-time U.S. National Team Champion
- 1997 Nike World Masters Champion
- Bronze Medalist at the Veteran World Championships .
- Member: 1981 and 1985 World University Teams
- Member: 1985, 1986, 1987, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993 World Championship Teams
- Personal Coach Peter Westbrook, 1996 Olympic Games and 1995 Pan Am Games
- USA Fencing Referee 1982 – Present
- NYU coach – 1981 – Present
- 6 NCAA Champions, 46 NCAA All Americans
- 6th Place NCAA Championships Team
- 15 Time UAA Championships Teams Men
- 10 Time UAA Championship Teams Women
- Member Rutgers college, Toms River High School and New Jersey Shore Halls of Fame.
- Married to Barbara Mormando for 35 years, who I met at the World University Games in Edmonton, Alberta in 1983!
- Vietnam Era Veteran for the United States Navy, Anti-Submarine Warfare.